Welcome! Today is the day! It is our annual Missions' Sunday. If you are a guest here's a quick primer on the genesis of this day. We want to do MUCH mission work. so we determined several years ago to take the total of one Sunday's offering and put it ALL on mission work. That way we all got to help determine what we are doing mission work wise. I will mention that some money comes every year as a part of our year-end-offering and is used for additional work. BUT today we set the budget for the next year. Let's make it super!

Today we welcome another great new family to our Family. Matthew and Kelly Ruiz, and their three kids Malachi, Jacobi, and Channing. They come to us from Nashville. Matthew works at Lipscomb. Kelly is our own Cathy Swiercz's daughter. We are delighted they are here.

Saturday is Stamp Out

Hunger. Come of down and help make it wonderful! Thanks to all who have already stepped up to help make this day a major impact for The Pantry and the many it serves.

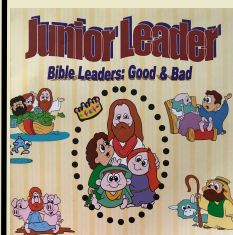

Of course, next Sunday is Mother's Day. I hope you will obey God's Word and honor your mom. We will have Muffins and Juice that morning for all who bring their mom's with them. It should be special!

Great stuff happening all around us. Let's drink in all the good we can!
