✕THE TIE THAT BINDS✕

by Dale Jenkins

This year is flying by. I want to encourage you to keep your ears open to opportunities to invite people to worship with us. I also want to continue to encourage us to reach out and welcome those who are our guests. You do such a great job in this. Let it be natural, just be friendly. I heard about a church this week that uses what they call the 10 yard rule. Speak to everyone at church services within 10 yards of you.

We had nearly 100 folks for the Church Growth and Health Workshop yesterday. Thanks to all who shared the info about it with others. There were a good number of congregations blessed by what you are a part of here.

The next really big thing happening (there are numerous smaller things) is our annual Family Meeting on September 29. This will follow our morning service and every member is encouraged to stay. Also, if you will, put what we are branding SMA Pray Day for October 27. We have had a special day to recognize and pray for all of our children BUT on the 27th we are inviting all of the parents and children in SMA or Spring Meadows School of the Arts to join us. It will be a great time to make the most of this important outreach. Let's capitalize on it well and make great connections with anyone who comes on that day. Remember, always souls, always souls!
