THE TIE THAT BINDS

by Dale Jenkins

There's so much bad out there and so much good in here, why would we ever want here to be like there? Let us always honor the LORD who planned such a place, love the love that is present, protect the godliness we are striving for, enjoy the level of involvement we appreciate, protect the unity we enjoy, and value the blessings we benefit from.

Today is a big day for many reasons but one is that we get to participate in our End of the Year Giving effort. As the Elders outlined last week funds over our weekly goal of $19,000 will be divided among various mission requests, building and grounds needs, and our Family Assistance Fund. You always respond so well, I know you will this time too.

Scott also let us know that, as many of you expected with their move, Emily will be stepping out of the role as church secretary. Emily has brought so many positive things to us the last few years, especially with her dedication and hard work through the pandemic. I remember well how she stepped in as Susan's health began to affect her ability to get things done. Behind the scenes and with great grace, she served so very well and made the challenging and painful time much less traumatic. We love her and her family and will certainly miss them. I have personally been blessed over and over and am thankful. I know Tonya will serve well as Spring Meadows fourth secretary and will bring her own gifts and talents to help this Family remain healthy.

We are blessed. Thank you for helping make it so.
