Jesus' Eye Exam Chester Darden

Things are not always as they seem. The previous statement can be true regarding people. In Matthew 23:25, the fifth woe, Christ warns the Pharisees that the ceremonial washing of the outside of the dishes was their priority and they were neglecting the most important cleanliness which is the inside. Unfortunately, I will occasionally get confused and only focus on the outward "cleanliness" of others.

In Matthew 23:27, the sixth woe, Jesus refers to another custom of the scribes and Pharisees, that of whitewashing tombs so they would not be stepped on. The tombs were clean and appealing to the eye, however, the outward appearance does not change the contents of what we can't see on the inside.

While sitting in a restaurant this week, I noticed four men at a table waiting for their food. All four men had an appearance which would cause me to be concerned if meeting them in an unsafe location. When their food arrived and to my surprise, all in unison, they removed their hats and bowed their heads for a prayer.

I know that what truly matters is what is on the inside of a person, not their appearance. The question is, when will I truly learn it?
