Become a Coding Member

Introducing a special new category of membership in the Society for Maternal-Fetal Medicine. The SMFM recognizes that maternal-fetal medicine practices have special coding needs. Whether you are an office manager, coder for a hospital, coder for a physician office, or a consultant you will benefit from a SMFM Coding Membership. You will receive the most up-to-date information and documentation available for maternal-fetal medicine coding. Our philosophy is always code for the appropriate reimbursement while maintaining strict adherence to compliance guidelines. Member benefits include:

- Password protected access to the Coding Section of www.smfm.org
- Search the SMFM Coding Archives
- Submit MFM coding questions to the SMFM Coding Committee
- Post and search for MFM coding career opportunities
- Discounted member prices on SMFM Coding Resources
- Notification of SMFM Coding Courses and Events
- Much More

Correct Coding is always the best policy.
