MAKING MEMORIES ON THE PORCH

BY SAMANTHA MATTHEWS NIGHT & DAY MAGAZINE

For many natives to the area as well as vacationers, summer starts not just at the shore, but on the porch of one or both of the area's iconic establishments and sister restaurants; The Columns and The Parker House.

While both establishments bring their own level of uniqueness to their communities, they also have many similarities and look forward to another season of good times and lasting memories for each and every person who steps through the doors.

"... We're looking forward to continued venues for the community to enjoy," said Leslie Sims, a member of the management team. "To be destinations for locals and out-of-town guests, to provide a safe, fun environment with great live music and great food."

THE PARKER HOUSE

The Parker House, located on 1st Avenue in Sea Girt, was established in 1878 and has remained a Sea Girt fixture for both year-round locals and summer visitors ever since. Serving fine food and good times for over 140 years, within the last year or two Parker House welcomed a new chef who has been busy making exciting culinary creations.

One of these is Lobster Fried Rice, which is featured on the regular menu. Brand new this year is the addition of Taco Tuesday, but with a special Parker House take on it.

According to Sims, you will have to stop in and see what the taco surprise will be as each week will feature different types of tacos, whether that is fish, chicken, steak or a different creation. While the taco types may change week to week, one thing for certain is that it will always be unique combinations.

"And you know there might be some that become house favorites and then they might be featured every week, but he likes to experiment," said Sims. "He'll do like octopus and pork belly. All unique creations."

"Monday is also Burger Night," said Sims. "He's going to do a sort of build-your-own-burger, but he's going to be putting unique twists on classic burgers as well."

Burger Night consists of a build-your-own-burger that will start at $10.95. The Taco Tuesday creations will be $14.95. Wednesdays will be Lobster Night again with a one-and-a-quarter pound lobster dinner, which comes with choice of starch and a vegetable for $15.95.

The World Famous Raw Bar Menu, which is open seven days a week from noon to close, offers a selection of seafood and other dishes like mini-cheeseburgers for $3, one-pound lobster for $12, steamed clams for $11, shrimp $6 for six or $10 for a dozen and much more.

Head to The Parker House on the weekends for weekend brunch when the establishment will open early and feature breakfast favorites for guests to enjoy.

COMMUNITY MATTERS FOR SISTER RESTAURANTS

The community continues to be of utmost importance to The Parker House. For The Parker House, its location and ability to give back remain a top priority. "... Loving where we are, we love Sea Girt," expressed Sims.

The Parker House hosts different fundraisers for the Sea Girt PTO, the Sea Girt Firehouse and more, shared Sims.

Last year, Parker Gives Back fundraisers included the Annual SG Fire Department fundraiser, Holly Club of Sea Girt, NJ Sharing Network, Manasquan VFW, Quincy Lee Foundation for pediatric cancer, Sea Girt Lifeguards, Long Blue Line, Squan-a-thon and Spring Lake Booster Club.

Another way to aid the community as well as the environment this year is that both establishments are eco-friendly this year, which includes hay straws and no plastic. In addition, both establishments continue to host fundraisers and support local organizations each year.

Every Sunday The Columns features a different local nonprofit group. Instead of collecting a cover at the door, donations are accepted for the featured nonprofit group. The grassroots community involvement is a major focal point of both establishments and the charity organizations the two establishments work with are the same.

THE COLUMNS

The Columns, established in 1883 in Avon-by-the-Sea, has been a seasonal shore favorite ever since its inception. The restaurant, bar and nightclub offers fresh menu selections, quality drinks and live music plus a sweeping elevated wrap-around porch.

Tuesday Clambakes return with the standard pot starting at $14.95 and then you can build it by adding lobster claws or a half-lobster.

On Wednesdays, The Columns features Surf n' Turf night and will feature live music with Vinyl at 6:30 p.m. The dinner special is a Petite Filet and Lobster Tail for $20.95.

Thursday is once again dedicated to the renowned Lobster Palooza, featuring a one-and-a-quarter pound lobster paired with your choice of starch and a vegetable for $15.95. There will be lobster giveaways at the bar and Guns 4 Hire will be rocking the house every Thursday. Each nightly dinner special is offered from 5 to 10 p.m.

"One of the new featured dishes at The Columns is the Backyard Chicken," shared Sims. "It's a very beautiful dish.

"It's half a roasted chicken and it comes stacked on a plate with a side and veggies, it looks and tastes really good."

One of the best things about The Columns? The location of course. "And I guess for The Columns, being oceanfront," answered Sims. "How nice is it to dine with such a beautiful view?"

LIVE ENTERTAINMENT

The Columns always offers guests an exciting musical lineup. On the upcoming calendar on Friday, June 14 Howl will perform at 10 p.m. On Saturday, June 15 Fast Clare will play at 4 p.m. and Undisputed will go on at 9:30 p.m. On Sunday, June 16 guests can enjoy Joe Baracata from 3 to 6 p.m. followed by Bob Bandiera & Friends at 6 p.m.

The following week features Joe Baracata Band on Friday, June 21 at 10 p.m. On Saturday, June 22 Fast Clare will perform at 4 p.m., Blue Highways at 9 p.m. in the Grill Room and the night will come to an end with Screaming Broccoli at 10 p.m.

On Sunday, June 23 Joe Baracata will continue to rock the afternoon from 3 to 6 p.m. followed by Bob Bandiera & Friends at 6 p.m.

Don't miss out on all the memories to be made at The Columns this summer. Keep the good food and good times alive on the porch.

SUMO HIBACHI STEAKHOUSE & SUSHI

The Goh family first opened the doors of Sumo Hibachi Steakhouse and Sushi Bar, located in the Allaire Plaza in Wall, 13 years ago. Anyone who has ever stepped foot into the establishment has been greeted with a warm welcome and friendly smile from Gina Goh. Stop in for hibachi and be dazzled as your food is skillfully and artistically prepared at your table by a master chef. Choose fresh ingredients from an authentic selection like filet mignon, chicken or shrimp to name a few, which are then paired with fried rice, noodles and vegetables. Sushi selections are top-notch as Sumo has built its reputation on carrying only the finest in fresh fish and the ability to create a variety of sushi, sashimi and generous selection of amped-up special rolls.

AARZU MODERN INDIAN BISTRO

Aarzu Modern Indian Bistro presents an exceptional upscale dining experience. According to its site, modern Indian cuisine is making rapid strides and Aarzu's endeavor is to create new dishes and recreate time-tested traditional recipes into dishes that delight guests. Taste, texture and presentation are the restaurant's focus and its recipes involve diverse elements as well as unique food pairings.

At Aarzu the decor, lighting, colors, art and serving platters are designed to complement the food, which creates the complete modern experience for guests. Some menu items include street food selections like Gol Gappa, flour spheres, guava mint and potato stu ng and Eggplant Chaat with candied ginger, date chutney and black salt. Mains features dishes like Tariwallah Kukad, their version of Homestyle Chicken Curry, Lamb Chops with cumin, ginger and mustard oil and Dhaba Goat Masala, which is pot braised, with cinnamon and house blend spice. Chicken 65 is served with chilly yoghurt, curry leaf and ginger. The menu boasts numerous vegetarian dishes as well, like Anjeer Kofta, fig & cheese dumplings and Tandoori Gobhi Saag, roasted cauliflower, spinach and ginger.

FLAMES BRAZILIAN STEAKHOUSE

Dine like you're in Brazil without leaving Belmar at Flames Brazilian Steakhouse, where the restaurant is proud to serve authentic Brazilian "Churrasco." For those not familiar with Brazilian "Churrasco" it is when different tender cuts of meat are seasoned and roasted to perfection and then brought to you one by gauchos at a time on large skewers. When diners choose to experience the full rodizio, the show begins as soon as one flips their token to the green side. While you won't be privy to what's coming first, a wide variety of beef, pork, chicken, turkey and lamb will be served and sliced tableside until you flip your token over to the black side. Whether you choose to dine full rodizio or gourmet salad bar only, one can indulge in an abundant buffet featuring gourmet fresh salads, signature hot entrees and side dishes. While it's very hard to do, try and save room for dessert as each selection is made from scratch following traditional family recipes.

Acts that dazzle at Algonquin

BY SAMANTHA MATTHEWS NIGHT & DAY MAGAZINE

After lying dormant for over a decade, the Algonquin Theatre opened its doors once more in the early 90's with the ability to handle both movies and live performances as opposed to strictly being a movie theatre. In 2011, the Algonquin Theatre basically moved to a full-time performing arts venue, which it remains today, with an eight-show season. See a play come to life on the Algonquin stage with performances that dazzle, making memories that stand the test of time.

FROM CINEMA TO BROADWAY

When the Algonquin stepped up to a full-time performing arts model in 2011, then-executive director Bill Whitefield started the Broadway Series, with productions that were predominantly Broadway shows or shows very similar to a Broadway show, big name musicals, big name plays, and presenting them year round, shared David Applegate, director of marketing and public relations.

According to Applegate, at the same time they also began the Algonquin Youth Ensemble, with children in the existing Performing Arts Academy auditioning for these main stage performances. The Youth Ensemble allows the children to learn about the theater and get an education as opposed to simply doing whatever it takes for the director to put up a show.

"The talent level around here is just phenomenal," he said. "It's what allows us to put on really good shows. There's just such an incredibly talented group of performers here."

Applegate fondly recalled the first big summer show the theater staged was "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat."

"That program has continued to evolve," added Applegate. "Starting, I believe, three seasons ago, it became a free program."

From 2011 on, the Algonquin has been striving to integrate their educational program onto the main stage while also presenting productions year round.

The Youth Ensemble ranges in age for each show, but the young performers must be at least high school students, up to age 18. This summer the Algonquin and the Youth Ensemble look forward to presenting "Newsies."

MORE TO OFFER

"In addition to our eight productions a year, we fill the other weekends with, usually it's music," said Applegate. "We still do some film. We do a short film event every year. We've been doing the Garden State Film Festival shorts over the last few years."

"We do a Jazz Series, where we do three concerts a year that are big band or other Jazz usually the earlier years of the genre – the 20s, 30s and 40s are featured."

"We do an Orchestra Series with Father Alphonse Stephenson, who's very popular and continues to be very popular. This year the orchestra now includes an opera every year."

"And this year we had 900 people come to an opera over two performances, which was fantastic, adding some diversity to our program in terms of what we're offering."

The theater hosts a plethora of concerts each year, which are typically tribute acts with anything from the 50s and 60s to the 70s and 80s as they try to cater to a range of audiences.

"We have a Family Series we just launched last year, which is five shows, which are an hour on Saturday mornings, a little bit more palatable," explained Applegate.

The Family Series is designed for the pre-k, kindergarten, first and second-grade age group and is presented for general public consumption.

The Algonquin also has an Education Series, which presents some 10 to 12 shows a year when local schools buy tickets and head to the theater. It's safe to say that there is always something happening at the Algonquin and the wide array of happenings provides something for everyone.

"We're usually between 90 and 100 performances per year happening on our stage, so we're having a performance once every four to five days," he said. "And then beyond that, the classes, there are rehearsals."

"There's literally not a period of time where the building lies dormant for more than a day or two at a time. It's quite a bit going on," added Applegate with a smile.

"NEWSIES"

When it comes time to pick shows for each season, the Algonquin deals with several companies that handle the licensing, but there are stipulations. You cannot do any show that is running on Broadway, currently on tour or on a tour that goes through New Jersey or a show another professional theater, like Paper Mill Playhouse or the State Theatre, is producing.

According to Applegate, "Newsies" had recently become available when it was time to select shows for the upcoming season. This is the first summer "Newsies" has been available for the Algonquin to produce.

"So we try to jump on the opportunity to do a show that's really popular right away," he added. "Second, we've got a great group of young men right now that are the right age to star in the show. We can cast it. There are some shows that we just wouldn't be able to cast based on the pool of talent that we have here."

"Newsies" will take the Algonquin stage from July 13 through 28, with various performances. The Disney film turned Tony-winning Broadway hit is a story that inspires everyone to fight for what's right and seize the day. The second show of the summer will be "A Chorus Line," from Aug. 9 through 18.

"... Looking ahead to the season, we've cast both shows for the summer," he said. "The casts have already done their table read, they're already in rehearsal. So we're really excited."

"We've got a great cast lined up for both shows. Tickets are on sale, people are buying the tickets. The postcards are hit, the brochures are hitting, the posters are up. So everyone really gets excited."

"It's now a couple months of rehearsal and then the week of the show. The actors, the production team, go into Tech Week. They're here from 7 o'clock at night to midnight every night putting the show together and then you have the energy of opening night. And in the summertime when it's still light out, when you're coming into the theater and there's folks who come, whether they're local, whether they're here on vacation."

"And there's always a really good energy heading into the summer shows."

MORE TO THE UPCOMING SEASON

The six other shows the Algonquin will present this season are: "Mamma Mia!," "Annie," "Brighton Beach Memoirs," "A Few Good Men," "How to Succeed in Business Without Really Trying" and "Hello Dolly."

"We're really proud to be an anchor here in Manasquan to bring people in," said Applegate. "I mean, everybody knows Manasquan for the beach and the beachfront and all of the activity that happens there in the summer."

"But we're excited to bring people in to downtown Manasquan. Great shops, great restaurants, great neighbors. And to be able to do that all year round, you can come, you can park for free."

You can take a walk up and down the street and do some shopping.

"And it really makes it a nice destination to come to the theater. The town being here helps us build an audience and hopefully we help the town build an audience and build some customers and diners as well. It's something that's extremely important to us."

Monmouth Beach: home and heart of MJ's newest location

BY SAMANTHA MATTHEWS

NIGHT & DAY MAGAZINE

MJ's Restaurant Bar & Grill hit the ground running from day one, better known as 2010 when Angelo DiCapua and Rob Webster opened the first location in Tinton Falls. Nine years later, the seventh location recently opened its doors to the Monmouth Beach community as both the newest and only location that is BYOB.

WELCOME TO MJ'S MONMOUTH BEACH

Despite the fact that this is MJ's first venture in Monmouth Beach, for DiCapua the town is like a second home as his roots run very deep in the quaint beach town. DiCapua owned Michael Angelo's, an Italian pizzeria in Monmouth Beach from 1997 to 2008 and opened two other locations under the same moniker.

"Michael Angelo's was a very successful operation in Monmouth Beach for a period of 11 years and basically we embrace that community," said David DeLis, creative director of MJ's. "It's an amazing town. It's family orientated.

"So I actually thought of the idea that rather than retread and reprise the idea of a pizzeria with takeout, why not make it more approachable and easily manageable if we just turn it into an MJ's, but obviously with the different journey, would be our first BYO.

"So that really is how it manifested, in embracing and really enjoying that community. It's just really local centric, it's great families, people are very supportive of local businesses. So along those lines we thought it would be a great opportunity to bring our brand, which has a reputation with six locations, into Monmouth Beach and I think it's perfectly timed and a great opportunity to launch our first BYO."

In addition to Webster, DiCapua and DeLis, another driving force behind the establishment is operations director Christina DiLuccio. With the success of six MJ's under their belts and the reputation that has accrued around the name, MJ's Monmouth Beach opened its doors on June 5 by doing just that, simply opening the doors.

According to DeLis, when we spoke a mere two days later, for this opening they decided to just open the doors without announcing the opening on social media or making any grand gesture to let people know.

"... For that community, the official start of summer is when school's out because, like I said, it's so family-centric; that really is kind of like the catalyst for summertime," shared DeLis. "So being one week away, 10 days away from the end of school, I think it gives us enough time to get fully adjusted and adapted to the system of the kitchen."

For DeLis this proved very approachable as they were able to take the kitchen personnel from other locations so the model for training was already in effect. According to DeLis the transition to the location was so easily done.

"So, again, we're really, really excited to be in that community," expressed DeLis. "It's a great opportunity for our brand. We don't have anything kind of coastal in Monmouth County. I feel that's more leverage for us. It's another advantage."

MENU OFFERINGS AND SPECIALS

MJ's Monmouth Beach will offer guests the same MJ's menu that patrons know and love, with a few additions catering to the new location.

"I've added the aspect of hot and cold subs and I've taken our most popular items and features and they will be fully offered in Monmouth Beach," he added.

The location proved to be a catalyst for the menu additions as it allots customers an easy food takeout item to grab on the way to the beach.

Also an exciting aspect added to the Monmouth Beach location is that it is the first MJ's location to offer delivery, which will be done in-house and not by a second party like GrubHub. "We're actually personally doing it ourselves so you're guaranteed to have it be done punctually and responsibly," added DeLis.

And although this is MJ's first BYO location, ease and convenience of the customer is still at the forefront. There is a liquor store that sits a mere 20 seconds away from MJ's so if any customers forgets to bring their own spirits or decides they do in fact want to pick something up, there is a liquor store right there.

To enhance the dining room experience for guests 21 and over, MJ's will offer exotic Sangria blends featuring alcohol-removed wine available in red, white and rose sangria bases in small and large carafes.

In addition, the new location will offer weekly specials featuring Taco Tuesdays, a trio of tacos for $9.99; Wednesdays will be 75-cent chicken wings and Thursdays will be B.Y.O.B. Build Your Own Burger, angus, turkey or veggie, starting at $6.99. Guests are also encouraged to celebrate their birthdays at MJ's Monmouth Beach with 15 percent off their bill and a free dessert for the birthday celebrator.

Sports programming will also be a top priority for the new location despite being a BYO destination. According to DeLis, they have installed 20 HDTVs to integrate sports programming in their BYO business. The bar-style seating the location offers was built with sports programming and the customer in mind.

"I know a lot of them [BYOB establishments] don't do it [sports programming] because they just don't want people sitting down and basically like kind of at a standstill, and we encourage the customers, we want that patronage," shared DeLis. "So I thought it was important that we had that coverage of televisions with a sightline in any different portion of the room so I'm really pleased with how that came out."

MAKE MJ'S MONMOUTH BEACH YOUR NEW DESTINATION

MJ's Monmouth Beach, 36 Beach Road, Monmouth Beach, 732-222-6800, will be your new destination whether it's for a grab-and-go meal on the way to the beach, an intimate dinner with friends, a slice of pizza when you have a craving, to cheer on your favorite sports team, to celebrate your birthday and so much more.

"I think it's somewhat important to note this reunion in a sense, this revisiting, something that was more personal to the ownership and the upper management of our brand," said DeLis. "I think it was our most passionate effort because it just has a certain innocence about it.

"I live right near there so that's how I became so familiar with it and it being, again, so family-centric. I mean we're a family restaurant. And that community is just an extension of our demographic."
