END YOUR SUMMER IN SHORESTYLE

BY SAMANTHA MATTHEWS

NIGHT & DAY MAGAZINE

While it seems hard to believe the end of summer is upon us, here at the Jersey Shore local towns have made sure to send us off in style. From celebrations and festivities to fireworks and races, calendars will be chock full of plenty of fantastic ways to end the summer season. It is no surprise that the end of summer may induce a feeling of summertime sadness and back-to-school blues, but Monmouth and Ocean counties will do their part to keep the summer fun going strong a little bit longer.

LABOR DAY TOWN EVENTS

Each year Manasquan turns Labor Day weekend into a celebration instead of a mere ending. This year Manasquan's Labor Day Concert will take place on Saturday, Aug. 31, at 5:30 p.m. at the Main beach with live music by the Retro Kings. The rain date is scheduled for Sunday, Sept. 1. For more information, visit squantourism.com. Spring Lake keeps the fun going on Saturday, Aug. 31, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. with its Spring Lake Labor Day End of Summer Celebration Sale & Art Walk. Enjoy the day strolling through the Third Avenue Business District while taking in works of art created by local artists. For more information, check out visitspringlake. com or spinglake.org.

OTHER FESTIVITIES

Head to Monmouth Park racetrack this Labor Day weekend to take part in an annual festival that perfectly pairs beer and barbecue. Dig in to the juiciest, most tender pulled pork, brisket and ribs the Jersey Shore has to offer and wash it down with an ice-cold beer. This Labor Day weekend join Monmouth Park for three days of delicious BBQ and a great selection of over 40 craft brews in its Craft Beer Garden.

Boar's Head BBQ & Craft Beer Festival is a three-day event, which will take place from Saturday, Aug. 31. through Monday, Sept. 2. from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day. Don't miss out on this finger-lickin' good festival and of course live thoroughbred racing at the Oceanport track. For more information, visit monmouthpark.com. The Lakewood BlueClaws know how to end the season with a bang, finishing the summer with plenty of fun at FirstEnergy Park, 2 Stadium Way, Lakewood, during their final regular season game. BlueClaws Fan Appreciation Night will be held Thursday, Aug. 29, with post-game fireworks, Kids Run the Bases and Thirsty Thursday with 95.9 WRAT radio station.

As part of the Fan Appreciation Night festivities, fans can meet BlueClaws players at the gates at 6 p.m. for pictures and autographs, food and drink specials throughout the night, specials in the Claws Cove and more. The post-game fireworks that will light up the sky after the game will be the final show of the year so make sure you stick around. For more information, head to blueclaws.com.

The Orchestra of St. Peter by the Sea, led by Father Alphonse Stephenson, a summer staple at the Jersey Shore, will perform Saturday, Sept. 7, at 8 p.m. Rev. Stephenson will conduct Ocean Grove's traditional end-of-summer concert in the Great Auditorium with a medley of patriotic anthems, Broadway show tunes and operatic selections. For more information, visit oceangrove.org.

The 33rd Annual Antiques, Crafts and Collectibles Faire will take place Saturday, Aug. 31, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., and is sponsored by the Ocean County Historical Society. There will be a variety of vendors, 50/50 raffle, Civil War re-enactors, classic car display, antique engines, appraisals, used book sale, museum tours and more. Food trucks will provide breakfast and lunchtime fare. The fun will take place at the Ocean County Parking Garage on Madison and Hadley avenues in Toms River. For more information, visit oceancountyhistory.org.

NIGHT & DAY MAGAZINE

As our beach communities sadly begin to say goodbye to the summer season, they still make sure to prove that it's not over yet. Sleep under the stars with the sounds of the ocean crashing in the background and keep the summer going just a bit longer in Monmouth and Ocean counties. It's not every day that you can pitch a tent and sleep the night away on the beach so make sure to take advantage of it while you still can. Area campgrounds also offer sites that put you close to the beach without sleeping on the sand.

OVERNIGHT BEACH CAMPING

Seaside Heights deems under-the-stars beach camping one of its most popular events so make sure to pre-register for the Friday, Aug. 30, edition beginning at 7 p.m. Campers are invited to bring their own tent and camp overnight in the area's designated sections of the beach. The number of campsites is limited so advance registration for Overnight Beach Camping is required. Each camper must have their own ticket and there is a maximum of six people per campsite.

This event is designed for families, couples and mature adults to camp overnight on the beach and wake up to enjoy a Jersey Shore sunrise. According to the site, the vibe of this event is peaceful, quiet and friendly and the event is not intended for people who wish to party at the campsite or at local bars before returning to the campsite. No campsite will be approved for any person under the age of 21 when not accompanied by a parent or legal guardian. For more information and to preregister for Overnight Beach Camping, visit exit82.com.

CAMPING AT SANDY HOOK

Savor the end of summer by camping at Sandy Hook. During the summer months, 20 tent campsites are available to visitors inland of the Horseshoe Cove section of Sandy Hook. Single sites may have up to six people camp at them. Larger families and groups will need to reserve multiple campsites. Two tents or one tent and one screen shelter are permitted per site. Each campsite has a picnic table, a grill, a fire ring and food storage container. Restrooms and water faucets are nearby. Campers must bring their own tent and sleeping bags.

The campground accommodates tent camping only and campers should be prepared to walk a quarter of a mile into the sites from the parking area as no cars are permitted in the campground or campsites. Firewood must be purchased at the Camping Office in the campground since no outside wood is permitted. Ice is available for sale at the Sandy Hook Campground. All beach centers have restrooms and outdoor rinse showers and a variety of food trucks are available at various beach plazas throughout the summer.

In addition to camping, there are a variety of cultural and recreational opportunities available at the park, including history tours, living history demonstrations, hiking, birding, kayaking, camping, swimming, and biking. Sandy Hook is known for its beautiful beaches, the Fort Hancock and Sandy Hook Proving Ground National Historic Landmark, and the country's oldest working lighthouse. For more information on camping at Sandy

BONFIRES ON THE BEACH

White it is certainly not camping, the annual Bonfires on the Beach provides an opportunity for people to enjoy a campfire on the beach for a few hours. Bonfires on the Beach is a beloved summer-long happening in Asbury Park that is open to all and is still going strong to finish out the summer season. The bonfires are held weekly on Wednesdays at 8 p.m. during the month of August and Fridays at 7 p.m. during the month of September.

Each week the bonfire will shift locations throughout the Asbury Park waterfront and quests are encouraged to bring their own blankets and chairs. On Aug. 28, the bonfire will be held at Beach Bar on 5th Avenue. September Fridays will kick off on Sept. 6 also at Beach Bar on 5th Avenue followed by Sept. 13 at The Anchor's Bend on Sunset. An additional bonfire will take place on Saturday, Sept. 14 also at The Anchor's Bend on Sunset. The Sept. 20 bonfire will take place at Langosta Lounge on 3rd Avenue. The final bonfire of the summer season will take place on Sept. 27 at MOGO on 1st Avenue. Day of bonfire updates can be found via the Asbury Park Boardwalk's Instagram, Facebook and Twitter pages.

Take a hike into the fall season

BY SAMANTHA MATTHEWS

NIGHT & DAY MAGAZINE

One of the beauties of the Garden State is its breathtaking scenery and various wonders of nature. From the ocean and plethora of beaches to mountains and hiking trails, Mother Nature truly blessed New Jersey with tons of beauty. The fall season brings a crispness to the air and colorful foliage to the trees, which makes it a perfect time to get outdoors and get hiking. While the mountains lie in North Jersey, Monmouth and Ocean counties have noteworthy trails for all your hiking pleasures so you may as well get going.

ALLAIRE STATE PARK

Allaire State Park spans both Wall and Howell townships and is best known for its historic 19-century ironmaking town, Allaire Village, as well as its antique steam trains on the Pine Creek Railroad. The Manasquan River winds through the park with a floodplain that provides habitat for more than 200 species of wildflowers, trees and plants as well as habitat for birds and other wildlife. Hikers, mountain bikers and horseback riders alike enjoy the many trails in the park.

A perfect place for hitting the trails, Allaire State Park offers over 20 miles of official, blazed trails in both the main area of the park near Allaire Village and on the south side of the park next to Hospital Road. The trails closer to the historic Allaire Village are for hiking only. Most of the trails around the village and family campgrounds are relatively flat, but the trails on the south side offer a little more variety without going over 60 inches of change in elevation.

HARTSHORNE WOODS

Hartshorne Woods in Monmouth County is a hilly and forested 794-acre site that overlooks the Navesink River and features more than 14 miles of trails, with challenging options. The site includes the Navesink Military Reservation Historic District, the 224-acre site of a former military base. Hartshorne Woods is among the highest elevations along the Atlantic Coast and features prominently in area history as a former coastal defense site.

Park features include group cabin camping by reservation, cross country ski trails, fishing in the Navesink River and trails for walking, hiking, biking and horseback riding. The park can be entered from Navesink Avenue, Locust or Portland Road in the Highlands. Home to the most extensive and challenging series of trails in the park system, hikers are advised to stay on marked trails, plan their route, take a trail map and wear appropriate safety gear.

SHARK RIVER PARK

Another popular destination in Monmouth County, Shark River Park, features more than 8 miles of trails. Shark River Park is located at 1101 Schoolhouse Road in Wall Township. Plants and animals common to the wetlands/floodplain ecosystem, as well as the pine/oak forest habitat, can be spotted from these trails. In addition, a fitness trail is available for hikers. Please be advised that a small portion of the Hidden Creek Trail is closed.

but alternative routes are posted along the trail.

DOUBLE TROUBLE STATE PARK

Double Trouble State Park is an 8,400-acre park in Ocean County that is located on the eastern edge of the Pine Barrens and offers a 1.5 mile nature trail as well as many unmarked trails along sandy service roads. Double Trouble State Park is a phenomenal example of the Pine Barrens ecosystem. The Double Tree Village area features a functioning cranberry farm and visitors are urged to be careful around the cranberry bogs and reservoirs.

Double Trouble State Park Nature Trail starts next to the cranberry sorting and packing house on the east side of Double Trouble Village. Both natural and historical items of interest are delineated by the 20 numbered posts along the Double Trouble Nature Trail. The 1.5 mile walk should take 30 to 40 minutes to complete.

WELLS MILLS COUNTY PARK

Wells Mills County Park, 905 Wells Mills Road, Waretown has the distinction of being

The gorgeous Wells Mills Lake also has trails around it, which makes a nice option for a leisurely stroll through the 900 acres of Pine Barrens that are located within Wells Mills County Park. HENRY HUDSON TRAIL Henry Hudson Trail is a paved, 10-foot wide,

24-mile long trail that is a former railroad right-ofway in Monmouth County. The trail is relatively flat traveling through both man-made and natural environments. While much of the trail is tree-lined there are portions that have views of surrounding > wetlands, streams and fields. The northern trail section runs 12 miles just north of and parallel to Rt.

36 from the Aberdeen/ Keyport border at the intersection of Lloyd Road and Clark St. to the sharing the road, the trail resumes at the Atlantic Highlands Marina and continues along Sandy Hook Bay to Popamora Point on the Atlantic Highlands and Highlands border.

The Henry Hudson Trail offers a wonderfully changing landscape as it traverses the county from the marshy regions of the Bayshore [Atlantic Highlands to Aberdeen1 to the woods and fields of Marlboro and Freehold. The varied scenery, as well as the beautifully maintained conditions, are just two reasons why this trail was selected to be part of the National Rails-to-Trails Network. According to the Monmouth County Parks site, the park system is proud to have earned this distinction, along with other unused rail corridors that have been transformed into vibrant community recreational trails.

CATTUS ISLAND COUNTY PARK

Cattus Island County Park, 1170 Cattus Island Boulevard, Toms River, spans 530 acres and seven miles of trails. Hikers can take in the unspoiled beauty the park has to offer by taking a leisurely walk along the main trail to the beach or walk a trail and enjoy many lovely vistas of Barnegat Bay.

The upcoming autumn season is the perfect time to hike Cattus Island's trails to witness the beauty of the fall foliage. Join a Cattus Island naturalist for one of the park's time-honored traditions of free weekend nature walks at 2 p.m. At Cattus Island County Park, nature enthusiasts as well as hikers can experience the wonders of the park's three distinct ecosystems: the forest, the salt marsh and Barnegat Bay.

Taking Mexi-Cali cuisine to the next level at 10th Ave. Burrito

BY SAMANTHA MATTHEWS NIGHT & DAY MAGAZINE

Established in 2004 in a small space on 10th Ave. in Belmar by owner Brian Katz, 10th Ave. Burrito Company moved into the Belmar Plaza and after one more move a few storefronts down, the establishment has made its home at 801 Belmar Plaza. While the locations changed and grew in size as did the business, 10th Ave. Burrito remains all about authentic Mexi-Cali cuisine like it has been from the start.

WELCOME TO 10TH AVE. BURRITO COMPANY

Stepping inside 10th Ave. Burrito one is instantly drawn to the laid-back atmosphere, murals and artwork that adorn the walls as well as the Mexican culture displayed through the decorations like the luchador wrestling masks displayed in the front of the restaurant and the "El Santo" luchador series that plays silently on a loop on the TVs in the dining room.

Currently in its 15th year, the eatery has seen different locations, obtained a seasonal liquor license and as of the last couple years, a full year-round liquor license and added live entertainment to the mix.

10th Ave. Burrito is always striving to add a new and exciting element into play and the most recent is an upcoming launch of a very special tequila. Katz worked with Herradura tequila in Mexico to create a blend of tequila handcrafted specifically for 10th Ave. Join the establishment for its end of summer party on Monday, Sept. 2, and taste the tequila for yourself. The blend will only be available at 10th Ave. Burrito.

The Labor Day party will also feature live music by Xol Azul band featuring rock, Latin music and more as well as seafood and drink specials beginning at 1 p.m.

WEEKLY SPECIALS

In addition to weekly live entertainment and off and on premises catering, 10th Ave. Burrito offers weekly food and drink specials for guests to enjoy. The current Monday special is Fresh Catch Seafood Mondays, which is available all day. The special seafood menu features fried shrimp, shrimp ceviche, mussels in chipotle broth, seared scallops, steamed clams, beer battered fish tacos and a sampler. Every Monday night at the bar from 8 p.m. to close those 21 and over can enjoy $3 Modelo drafts, $7 House Margaritas, $6 Tecate & El Jimador shot, $5 Corralejo Reposado shots, $5 Casamigos Silver shots, $7 Giblets, $7 Casamigos cocktails and $5 White Claws.

Tuesday is none other than Taco Tuesday featuring $12 All-You-Can-Eat Tacos all day long for dine-in only with specific taco options to choose from. Wednesday nights on the patio are currently featuring Mexican Street Tacos served at the outside bar for $2. From 4 to 7 p.m. choose from Pollo Verde, Al Pastor and Carne Asada street tacos on homemade corn tortillas made to order.

Every Wednesday night is also Ladies Night featuring $5 apps including wings, chips & guac, queso dip, traditional nachos or flautas as well as $5 La Casa Margaritas [12 oz.] and $5 glasses of wine and sangria. The specials are dine in and ladies only. Thursday after 4 p.m. and dine-in only is Wing Night with 75 cent wings. The drink specials for Thursday night include a can of Tecate and a shot of El Jimador teguila for $6 and $10 pitchers of Corona Light and $8 pitchers of Yuengling and Miller Lite.

Sundays are all about brunch. From 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. enjoy 10th Ave.'s Sweet & Savory Brunch featuring items such as Huevos Rancheros, Steak and Eggs, Avocado Toast, Pork Roll Burrito, Chicken and Waffles and more. Those 21 and over can indulge in the Build Your Own Bloody Mary and Screw Driver bar or enjoy $5 Sangria and Mimosas.

MENU MAKEUP

10th Ave. Burrito offers its guests an expansive food and drink menu that truly offers something for everyone featuring housemade everything from start to finish. The bar menu offers an extensive list of tequilas available in Silver, Reposado and Aneio selections as well as draft beers. bottles and cans, margaritas, signature cocktails and wine and sangria. All of the margaritas are made with housemade margarita mix from fresh lime juice and simple syrup. The 10th Ave. Classic features Herradura Resposado, orange liquor, lime and pure cane sugar.
