Materials

Instructions

1. Have the children perform different activities that showcase unique talents that they might have. Some examples might include: doing a funny voice, solving a math problem, doing your best dance move, running a race, etc.
2. Talk about the different talents, and how some kids might have talents that others don't. Despite having different talents, we all have gifts and talents we can use!
3. Brainstorm with the children how they could use their talents to glorify God. They are chosen, just like Moses, Joshua, and the judges, to bring the good news of the true king to their friends and family.

Point

God chooses leaders at various times for various reasons. Every leader has different talents and gifts that are of the Lord. Just like God chose Moses, Joshua, and many judges to lead His people, God will choose you and use what He has made you good at.
