Materials

Timer, paper and pen

Instructions

1. Set a timer for 3 minutes, and stress the importance of creating a list of 10 things that we can do to worship the Lord.
2. Begin writing down ideas from the kids, but get distracted and ask the kids a random question like "What did everyone eat for breakfast this morning?" or "What is their favorite animal?"
3. Say you will start creating the list again with them, but continue to get distracted by asking the kids questions and telling random stories.
4. Continue this process until the timer runs out, and you are unable to complete the list of 10 things.
5. Discuss. Why did you not finish? Was it because distractions kept getting in the way?

Point

In this activity, you kept getting distracted so you were unable to complete what you wanted to accomplish. It is easy to get sidetracked with something else, so we sometimes don't keep our priorities straight. However, we learned that David got rid of all distractions and kept the main focus he was supposed to: worship. David is a great example to make sure our priorities are clear.
