How was God's promise to David a Torah for all mankind?

God promised that king David's son would be a king for all mankind.

Anticipation Arises

Materials

A screen in order to play a movie trailer

Instructions

1. Ask the kids to share their favorite movie and why.
2. Tell the kids the newest movie you are excited about and play a kid-friendly movie trailer that is coming out soon, but not yet in theatres.
3. Discuss. Are they excited to see the movie coming out? How do they know for sure if it will come out or not? How do they prepare for the movie coming out? Does it fill them with excitement?

Point

Trailers help us get excited and ready for new movies coming out. A trailer is not a tease, so when we see a trailer for a new movie coming out, we know it is going to happen. David got to see a trailer for his life and family when God told him that his son would be a king for all mankind. Just like movie trailers point to something that is going to happen, God's promise is all the more faithful. Can you imagine how David felt?
