Instructions

1. Tell the kids you will be playing music, and when the music stops, they need to freeze and stop dancing.
2. Do this a couple of times until you don't pause the music anymore and you keep the music playing for a long time.
3. Once the kids are acting tired and asking you when you are going to pause it, have them sit down and discuss the point.
4. After discussing the point, have them get up and dance again in celebration. Have them praise God for giving us the greatest king of all time, Jesus, and that He is reigning forever!

Point

The music represents Israel celebrating when they had a king, but when the music is stopped, it is the recognition that the king was never the true king and so he stopped being on the throne. Israel had many kings, until finally, the true king stepped on the throne, and his name was Jesus. We can keep on celebrating since Jesus Christ, our true King, will be sitting on the throne forever.
