Who are the children of God's promise to Abraham?

The children of Abraham are all those who trust God and hold onto his promises.

In God

Materials

White construction paper
Markers
Scissors

Steps

1. Have children write "God" in large, bubble letters in the middle of the paper. Some kids may need help with this step.
2. Have them use markers to write the words "faith", "hope", "trust" (any other words that represent God) inside the bubble letters.
3. Last, they will cut out the name God.
4. While they are working, take pictures of each child to be printed for next week's craft.

The Point

God wants us to put our faith, hope, and trust in him. Hang your creation somewhere in your room to remind you that you can trust God's promises.
