Steps

1. Have children trace one of their hands on construction paper and cut it out.
2. Next, they will glue their cut out hand in the center of a different colored piece of construction paper.
3. Then, they will use a pencil to draw the shape of a basic house around their hand using just a rectangle and a triangle.
4. Have them cut on the lines of their house so that they end up with a shape of a house around their hand.
5. Have them use a marker to write God in the center of their hand.

The Point

Emphasize that God promised Abraham land for his family that would become their home. Let them know that the hand represents them. If we are a child of God, we are in his presence and then we are home. God's presence is the truest definition of home.
