Why did God listen to Israel's cries for help?

God faithfully kept His promises to Abraham and rescued Israel from exile and slavery.

Promises Matching Game

Materials

White paper or index cards

Scissors

Pencils

Steps

1. Cut the index cards or paper into 2 inch squares that are the same size.
2. Brainstorm promises from God.
3. Write these promises on the 2 inch squares, and each promise should be written on two squares.
4. Mix up the squares and lay them face down.
5. Play a matching game by searching for matching promise squares.

The Point

Remind children that God faithfully keeps His promises. They should play this game often to remember His promises.
