FAITHFUL AND TRUE

God's Word reveals his character and will to us, transforming our lives and leaving us in awe of his glory. In these words, we know that God is faithful and true to guide us and provide for us as we pursue his mission around the world.

The words "faithful" and "true" also speak to the heartbeat of your ministry and are evident in the years you have spent faithfully teaching and challenging people to live the truths of Scripture. This is an identity LifeWay is proud to share with you—in everything we do, we strive to be faithful and true to the Word of God, just as you have been faithful and true to the Bible and in your work for the Kingdom. We are thankful for the work you do.

Throughout its history, the Holman Christian Standard Bible has held firm in its commitment to combine strong biblical scholarship with a translation fit for modern readers.

Today, we are excited to introduce you to the new Christian Standard Bible (CSB). With an ongoing commitment to scholarship and readability, we are now positioned to serve more people and churches than ever before. We want to reaffirm our commitment to you and your church as we are servants of Christ, together, for the mission to which he has called us, and we cannot wait to see what God has planned in the days ahead.

OUR CHALLENGE

According to a recent poll by Barna Group, only 37% of Americans report reading the Bible once a week or more. While the Bible's place in America as a cultural icon endures, it's not always perceived as a transformational text. Even as Bible ownership remains strong, readership and engagement are weak. In fact, the number of those who are skeptical or agnostic toward the Bible—who believe that the Bible is “just another book of teachings written by men that contains stories and advice”—has nearly doubled from 10% to 19% in just three years. This is now equal to the number of people who are Bible engaged, who read the Bible at least four times a week and believe it is the inspired Word of God.

Yet, as evangelical Christians, we believe that Bible reading is the number one indicator for spiritual growth; in fact, research tells us that this is true. The problem, then, of how to encourage more engagement with Scripture's transformational message is not new, but it is a problem we want to help solve.

The answer is complex, but one factor cannot be denied: the importance of a reader's translation of the Bible. Some translations are accurate to the original but clunky and hard to read; other translations are easy to read but stray away from accuracy. Bible translation, however, should never compromise on either accuracy or readability.

This is where the Christian Standard Bible (CSB) comes in. At LifeWay, we are passionate about ensuring that the text communicates ancient truths to a modern audience as faithfully and clearly as possible.

On one hand, the CSB provides a highly accurate text for faithful sermon preparation and serious study, translated straight from the biblical languages by scholars who love God's Word. On the other hand, it does not compromise readability and clarity for those who may be less familiar with the traditional (and sometimes difficult) vocabulary retained in some translations of the Bible.

Beyond that, we also know that the good news of the Bible is meant to be shared. A translation that hits the sweet spot of that balance between fidelity and readability opens the door for every believer to share the Bible with someone who has read it for a lifetime, or with someone who has never before read its life-changing message.

HISTORY OF THE CSB

A DREAM TEAM OF BIBLICAL SCHOLARSHIP

Over 20 years ago, a team of more than 100 top conservative scholars from 17 denominations came together with one common vision: to create an original English translation meticulously faithful to the ancient Scriptures and exceptionally clear to understand. With the benefit of up-to-date manuscript discoveries and significant advances in research, these translators, reviewers, and stylists exhaustively scrutinized ancient source texts—including the critical Greek text favored by scholars—to determine every nuance of original meaning and intent. The result is a Bible that not only shines by academic standards but is also remarkably enjoyable to read—The Holman Christian Standard Bible.

REVISED AND IMPROVED

Around three years ago, top biblical scholars and an English stylist—Michael Card—began reviewing the full text of the Holman Christian Standard Bible to provide today's readers with a translation that is even more accurate and readable. This team of conservative, evangelical scholars has incorporated feedback from pastors, seminaries, and other conservative denominations to ensure the very best balance of fidelity and clarity. This revision, renamed the Christian Standard Bible, will be available early in 2017 in a wide variety of editions from LifeWay and from other publishing partners. Reference works based on the CSB are also being developed.

OPTIMAL EQUIVALENCE— A BEAUTIFUL BALANCE

The CSB employs a translation philosophy known as Optimal Equivalence, which seeks to achieve an optimal balance of linguistic precision reflecting the original languages with readability in contemporary English. In the many places throughout Scripture where a word-for-word rendering is clearly understandable, a literal translation is used. In places where a word-for-word rendering might obscure the meaning for a modern audience, a more dynamic translation is favored. This process assures that both the words and thoughts contained in the original text are conveyed as accurately as possible.

TRUSTWORTHY, READABLE, AND SHAREABLE

The measure of a Bible translation is not just superior scholarship—it must also be clear for a modern audience. Readers should not have to choose between faithfulness to the original texts and readability. The CSB exists to hit that sweet spot between faithfulness and readability. The result is a translation that pastors and laypeople alike can feel confident sharing with a world that craves real truth.”

Whether you use it in preaching, group study, private devotions, memorization, discipleship, or corporate worship, you’ll find the Christian Standard Bible consistently brings God’s transforming truth to life, making it easier to understand, apply, and share with others.

A photograph of a person's hand holding a Bible in a brown leather case. The person is wearing a dark jacket and jeans. The background is a blurred outdoor scene with green grass and trees under a bright sky. The text is overlaid on the right side of the image.

Many good translations of the Bible are available today. Of course, the best translation is one that is faithful to the original texts and yet readable for a modern audience. The CSB resides in that sweet spot between the two, showing that a translation doesn't have to compromise one to have the other.

The translations are linked to the original Hebrew and Greek texts and analyzed lexically and syntactically. Statistics are gathered that correlate with fidelity (consistency of word usage, amount of paraphrase, and transfer rate of syntactic relations) and readability (lexical features, syntactic fluency, similarity to the Brown corpus, etc.). CHANGES IN THE CSB

With the goals of increased fidelity to the Hebrew, Greek and Aramaic texts and increased clarity for today's readers, the Translation Oversight Committee (TOC) has made revisions to about 5% of the HCSB text. These changes, which have been informed by feedback from other biblical scholars, seminary professors, and pastors, fall into five major categories:

1. YAHWEH

While this has been a distinctive of the HCSB, the translators elected to eliminate the use of "Yahweh" and use the traditional "Lord" instead.

- It is difficult and cumbersome to use "Yahweh" consistently throughout the 6,828 places in Scripture where it occurs. Readers want a text that is familiar ("The Lord is my shepherd" vs. "Yahweh is my shepherd").
- The New Testament precedent is to render "YHWH" as kurios (Lord); there is consistency in following this precedent.
- The CSB will use a footnote saying "Lit Yahweh" in certain key passages.

2. SLAVE

The TOC elected to remove "slave of Christ" as a default rendering and allow context to decide between "slave" and "servant" for most instances of eved and doulos.

- Despite what is often said about the accuracy of "slave," there are cases where "servant" is clearly more accurate.
- "Servant" more closely reflects the Old Testament equivalent, eved.
- "Slave" will still be the best rendering of some instances of doulos.

3. LANGUAGES

The TOC reversed the HCSB approach on "languages." In texts containing the lalein + glossa construction, the CSB text will say "tongues." At places where we feel strongly that languages are in view, we will include a footnote saying, "languages." This position puts us in line with traditional approaches and alleviates the appearance that we have ruled out certain theological and interpretive stances by "over-translating" the Greek.

4. CAPITALIZING THE DIVINE PRONOUN

The TOC has elected to remove all capitalization for divine pronouns but allow context to determine whether to capitalize nouns/titles that may refer to a member of the Trinity.

- Capitalizing pronouns can be an interpretative move, not a translational move, since no capitalization occurred in the original languages
- Capitalizing pronouns can actually change the meaning of some texts (eliding reference to King David, for instance)
- Contemporary English writing does not use capitalized pronouns in reference to deity, and neither do top Bible translations

5. GENDER USAGE

The TOC improved accuracy in the CSB by being less specific in contexts where the original does not support excluding female referents.

- The word “brothers” suggests to English readers today only male believers, but in the vast majority of instances the Greek word adelphoi refers to both males and females, so it is translated “brothers and sisters” in those cases.
- For historical accounts, parables, or examples, the TOC generally retained “man” or “men.” For general principles, the translators used “person” or “one,” usually rendering anthropos as “person” since it doesn’t refer to males per se but to human beings, and aner as “man” or “men.” In all cases, the context determined the most accurate rendering of the original.
- The TOC did not make the third person singular pronouns inclusive, and thus translated them as “he” or “him,” not “they” or “you,” electing not to remove the individual and personal sense of those expressions.

GENESIS 39:9	The usage of “great” has changed over the years. Only in populations familiar with the Bible does anyone readily understand you if you speak of “great evil” or “great destruction.” For most people, “great” means “really good.”	So how could I do this immense evil, and how could I sin against God?	So how could I do such a great evil and sin against God?	How then could I do such a wicked thing and sin against God?	How then can I do this great wickedness and sin against God?	How could I do such a wicked thing? It would be a great sin against God.	How then could I do this great evil and sin against God?	How then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?
GENESIS 41:56	Improvement over HCSB, since the famine clearly was not only in Egypt	Now the famine had spread across the whole region, so Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold grain to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe in the land of Egypt.	Because the famine had spread across the whole country, Joseph opened up all the storehouses and sold grain to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe in the land of Egypt.	When the famine had spread over the whole country, Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold grain to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe throughout Egypt.	So when the famine had spread over all the land, Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe in the land of Egypt.	So with severe famine everywhere, Joseph opened up the storehouses and distributed grain to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe throughout the land of Egypt.	When the famine was spread over all the face of the earth, then Joseph opened all the storehouses, and sold to the Egyptians; and the famine was severe in the land of Egypt.	The famine was over all the face of the earth, and Joseph opened all the storehouses and sold to the Egyptians. And the famine became severe in the land of Egypt.

JUDGES 9:5	Improvement on HCSB and ESV (English idiom does not require the reflexive “himself” when one hides).	He went to his father’s house in Ophrah and killed his 70 brothers, the sons of Jerubbaal, on top of a large stone. But Jotham, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, survived, because he hid.	He went to his father’s house in Ophrah and killed his 70 brothers, the sons of Jerubbaal, on top of a large stone. But Jotham, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, survived, because he hid himself.	He went to his father’s home in Ophrah and on one stone murdered his seventy brothers, the sons of Jerubbaal. But Jotham, the youngest son of Jerubbaal, escaped by hiding.	And he went to his father’s house at Ophrah and killed his brothers the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men, on one stone. But Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left, for he hid himself.	He went to his father’s home at Ophrah, and there, on one stone, they killed all seventy of his half brothers, the sons of Gideon. But the youngest brother, Jotham, escaped and hid.	Then he went to his father’s house at Ophrah and killed his brothers the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy men, on one stone. But Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left, for he hid himself.	Then he went to his father’s house at Ophrah and killed his brothers, the seventy sons of Jerubbaal, on one stone. But Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left, because he hid himself.
2 SAMUEL 15:22	Often the Hebrew word taph refers not to little children specifically, but to dependents in general. This is often the case where it complements fighting-age men.	“March on,” David replied to Ittai. So Ittai of Gath marched past with all his men and the dependents who were with him.	“March on,” David replied to Ittai. So Ittai the Gittite marched past with all his men and the children who were with him.	David said to Ittai, “Go ahead, march on.” So Ittai the Gittite marched on with all his men and the families that were with him.	And David said to Ittai, “Go then, pass on.” So Ittai the Gittite passed on with all his men and all the little ones who were with him.	David replied, “All right, come with us.” So Ittai and all his men and their families went along.	Therefore David said to Ittai, “Go and pass over.” So Ittai the Gittite passed over with all his men and all the little ones who were with him.	So David said to Ittai, “Go, and cross over.” Then Ittai the Gittite and all his men and all the little ones who were with him crossed over.
PSALM 1:1	Readers of poetry will get the symbols “walk,” “stand,” and “sit.” “Happy” is a better translation of the Hebrew in this context. Also, the English idiom of “standing in someone’s way” could be misunderstood.	How happy is the man who does not walk in the advice of the wicked or stand in the pathway with sinners or sit in the company of mockers!	How happy is the man who does not follow the advice of the wicked or take the path of sinners or join a group of mockers!	Blessed is the one who does not walk in step with the wicked or stand in the way that sinners take or sit in the company of mockers.	Blessed is the man who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers.	Oh, the joys of those who do not follow the advice of the wicked, or stand around with sinners, or join in with mockers.	How blessed is the man who does not walk in the counsel of the wicked, Nor stand in the path of sinners, Nor sit in the seat of scoffers!	Blessed is the man Who walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, Nor stands in the path of sinners, Nor sits in the seat of the scornful;

PSALM 41:8	Improvement over HCSB, NIV and ESV, which are too specific for a Hebrew text where the exact meaning is indeterminate.	“Something awful has overwhelmed him, and he won’t rise again from where he lies!” (with Lit note “A thing of worthlessness has been poured into him”)	“Lethal poison has been poured into him, and he won’t rise again from where he lies!”	“A vile disease has afflicted him; he will never get up from the place where he lies.”	They say, “A deadly thing is poured out on him; he will not rise again from where he lies.”	“He has some fatal disease,” they say. “He will never get out of that bed!”	“A wicked thing is poured out upon him, That when he lies down, he will not rise up again.”	“An evil disease,” they say, “clings to him. And now that he lies down, he will rise up no more.”
PSALM 56:4	Improvement on HCSB, which not only is inappropriately gender specific, but does not bring out the force of the Hebrew.	In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I will not be afraid. What can mere mortals do to me?	In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I will not fear. What can man do to me?	In God, whose word I praise—in God I trust and am not afraid. What can mere mortals do to me?	In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust; I shall not be afraid. What can flesh do to me?	I praise God for what he has promised. I trust in God, so why should I be afraid? What can mere mortals do to me?	In God, whose word I praise, In God I have put my trust; I shall not be afraid. What can mere man do to me?	In God (I will praise His word), In God I have put my trust; I will not fear. What can flesh do to me?
PSALM 62:9	Gets rid of the unnecessarily gender-specific language and clarifies the meaning of the second line.	Common people are only a vapor; important people, an illusion. Together on a scale, they weigh less than a vapor. (With a Lit note: “they go up more than”)	Men are only a vapor; exalted men, an illusion. Weighed in the scales, they go up; together they are less than a vapor.	Surely the lowborn are but a breath, the highborn are but a lie. If weighed on a balance, they are nothing; together they are only a breath.	Those of low estate are but a breath; those of high estate are a delusion; in the balances they go up; they are together lighter than a breath.	Common people are as worthless as a puff of wind, and the powerful are not what they appear to be. If you weigh them on the scales, together they are lighter than a breath of air.	Men of low degree are only vanity and men of rank are a lie; In the balances they go up; They are together lighter than breath.	Surely men of low degree are a vapor, Men of high degree are a lie; If they are weighed on the scales, They are altogether lighter than vapor.

JOHN 3:16	“In this way” is the correct translation of the Greek houtos , a word that indicates more of the manner in which God loved the world rather than the extent to which he loved it; “one and only Son” is a more accurate translation of the Greek monogenes .	For God loved the world in this way: He gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life.	For God loved the world in this way: He gave His One and Only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him will not perish but have eternal life.	For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.	For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.	For this is how God loved the world: He gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life.	For God so loved the world, that He gave His [a]only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish, but have eternal life.	For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life.
ROMANS 3:25	“Atoning sacrifice” is easier to understand than “propitiation” (ESV) and more natural English than “sacrifice of atonement” (NIV). Also, “restraint” is better than the archaic “forbearance.”	God presented him as an atoning sacrifice through faith in his blood, to demonstrate his righteousness, because in his restraint God passed over the sins previously committed.	God presented Him as a propitiation through faith in His blood, to demonstrate His righteousness, because in His restraint God passed over the sins previously committed.	God presented Christ as a sacrifice of atonement, through the shedding of his blood—to be received by faith. He did this to demonstrate his righteousness, because in his forbearance he had left the sins committed beforehand—	whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith. This was to show God’s righteousness, because in his divine forbearance he had passed over former sins.	For God presented Jesus as the sacrifice for sin. People are made right with God when they believe that Jesus sacrificed his life, shedding his blood. This sacrifice shows that God was being fair when he held back and did not punish those who sinned in times past,	whom God displayed publicly as a propitiation in His blood through faith. This was to demonstrate His righteousness, because in the forbearance of God He passed over the sins previously committed;	whom God set forth as a propitiation by His blood, through faith, to demonstrate His righteousness, because in His forbearance God had passed over the sins that were previously committed,

1 CORINTHIANS 7:1	“Touching a woman” was a euphemism for sexual relations. Recent research indicates that it did not refer to sex in general, but rather it specified a particular type of sex: sex for pleasure with women other than your wife. “Touching” someone was what we might call casual sex. It was also unilateral and sometimes abusive.	Now in response to the matters you wrote about: “It is good for a man not to use a woman for sex.”	Now in response to the matters you wrote about: “It is good for a man not to have relations with a woman.”	Now for the matters you wrote about: “It is good for a man not to have sexual relations with a woman.”	Now concerning the matters about which you wrote: “It is good for a man not to have sexual relations with a woman.”	Now regarding the questions you asked in your letter. Yes, it is good to abstain from sexual relations.	Now concerning the things about which you wrote, it is good for a man not to touch a woman.	Now concerning the things of which you wrote to me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.
1 CORINTHIANS 11:33	It isn’t clear that there is a notion of precedence, one waiting for another; it could be translated “welcome each other” or “receive one another.” It doesn’t appear that the author is calling upon believers to wait but to welcome, to accept.	Therefore, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, welcome one another.	Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.	So then, my brothers and sisters, when you gather to eat, you should all eat together.	So then, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another—	So, my dear brothers and sisters, when you gather for the Lord’s Supper, wait for each other.	So then, my brethren, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.	Therefore, my brethren, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.

1 TIMOTHY 2:12	“Assume authority” (NIV) is an interpretive translation. “Silent” is an over-translation in this context.	I do not allow a woman to teach or to have authority over a man; instead, she is to remain quiet.	I do not allow a woman to teach or to have authority over a man; instead, she is to be silent.	I do not permit a woman to teach or to assume authority over a man; she must be quiet.	I do not permit a woman to teach or to exercise authority over a man; rather, she is to remain quiet.	I do not let women teach men or have authority over them. Let them listen quietly.	But I do not allow a woman to teach or exercise authority over a man, but to remain quiet.	And I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man, but to be in silence.
1 PETER 5:8	“Be serious” sounds rather flippant in today’s idiom. People use it in a colloquial way in the US, and hence we needed something that didn’t have such a connotation.	Be sober-minded, be alert. Your adversary the devil is prowling around like a roaring lion, looking for anyone he can devour.	Be serious! Be alert! Your adversary the Devil is prowling around like a roaring lion, looking for anyone he can devour.	Be alert and of sober mind. Your enemy the devil prowls around like a roaring lion looking for someone to devour.	Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour.	Stay alert! Watch out for your great enemy, the devil. He prowls around like a roaring lion, looking for someone to devour.	Be of sober spirit, be on the alert. Your adversary, the devil, prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour.	Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.
REVELATION 3:20	“See!” is an exclamation that calls attention to a situation. Since the second sentence is introduced with “anyone,” the word “him” that follows is clearly inclusive, and it is not necessary to use “they” (NIV).	See! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me.	Listen! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and have dinner with him, and he with Me.	Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with that person, and they with me.	Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and eat with him, and he with me.	Look! I stand at the door and knock. Genesis 1:26-28

²⁶ Then God said, “Let us make man in our image, according to our likeness. They will rule the fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, the livestock, the whole earth, and the creatures that crawl on the earth.”

²⁷ So God created man in his own image;
he created him in the image of God;
he created them male and female.

²⁸ God blessed them, and God said to them, “Be fruitful, multiply, fill the earth, and subdue it. Rule the fish of the sea, the birds of the sky, and every creature that crawls on the earth.”

Genesis 3:1-7

¹ Now the serpent was the most cunning of all the wild animals that the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, “Did God really say, ‘You can’t eat from any tree in the garden?’”

² The woman said to the serpent, “We may eat the fruit from the trees in the garden. ³ But about the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden, God said, ‘You must not eat it or touch it, or you will die.’ ”

⁴ “No! You will not die,” the serpent said to the woman. ⁵ “In fact, God knows that when you eat it your eyes will be opened and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.” ⁶ The woman saw that the tree was good for food and delightful to look at, and that it was desirable for obtaining wisdom. So she took some of its fruit and ate it; she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it. ⁷ Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

Exodus 20:1-17

¹ Then God spoke all these words: ² I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the place of slavery.

³ Do not have other gods besides me.

⁷ Do not misuse the name of the LORD your God, because the LORD will not leave anyone unpunished who misuses his name.

⁸ Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy: ⁹ You are to labor six days and do all your work, ¹⁰ but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. You must not do any work — you, your son or daughter, your male or female servant, your livestock, or the resident alien who is within your city gates. ¹¹ For the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and everything in them in six days; then he rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and declared it holy.

¹² Honor your father and your mother so that you may have a long life in the land that the LORD your God is giving you.

¹³ Do not murder.

¹⁴ Do not commit adultery.

¹⁵ Do not steal.

¹⁶ Do not give false testimony against your neighbor.

¹⁷ Do not covet your neighbor's house. Do not covet your neighbor's wife, his male or female servant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbor.

Deuteronomy 6:49

⁴ “Listen, Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one. ⁵ Love the LORD your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your strength. ⁶ These words that I am giving you today are to be in your heart. ⁷ Repeat them to your children. Talk about them when you sit in your house and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. ⁸ Bind them as a sign on your hand and let them be a symbol on your forehead. ⁹ Write them on the doorposts of your house and on your city gates.

Deuteronomy 7:9

¹How happy is the man who does not walk in the advice of the wicked or stand in the pathway with sinners or sit in the company of mockers!

² Instead, his delight is in the LORD's instruction, and he meditates on it day and night.

³ He is like a tree planted beside flowing streams that bears its fruit in its season and whose leaf does not wither.
Whatever he does prospers.

⁴ The wicked are not like this;
instead, they are like chaff that the wind blows away.

⁵ Therefore the wicked will not stand up in the judgment,
nor sinners in the assembly of the righteous.

⁶ For the LORD watches over the way of the righteous,

Matthew 28:18-20

¹⁸ Jesus came near and said to them, “All authority has been given to me in heaven and on earth. ¹⁹ Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ teaching them to observe everything I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age.”

John 1:1-5

¹ In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. ² He was with God in the beginning. ³ All things were created through him, and apart from him not one thing was created that has been created. ⁴ In him was life, and that life was the light of men. ⁵ That light shines in the darkness, and yet the darkness did not overcome it.

John 3:16-17

¹⁶ “For God loved the world in this way: He gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life. ¹⁷ For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.”

John 14:16

Jesus told him, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.”

Acts 1:4-11

⁴ While he was together with them, he commanded them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for the Father's promise. "Which," he said, "you have heard me speak about; ⁵ for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit in a few days."

⁶ So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, are you restoring the kingdom to Israel at this time? "

⁷ He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. ⁸But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come on you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."

⁹ After he had said this, he was taken up as they were watching, and a cloud took him out of their sight.

¹⁰ While he was going, they were gazing into heaven, and suddenly two men in white clothes stood by them.

¹¹ They said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up into heaven? This same Jesus, who has been taken from you into heaven, will come in the same way that you have seen him going into heaven."

PAULINE EPISTLES

Romans 3:21-26

²¹ But now, apart from the law, God's righteousness has been revealed, attested by the law and the prophets. ²² God's righteousness is through faith in Jesus Christ to all who believe, since there is no distinction. ²³ For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God. ²⁴ They are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus. ²⁵ God presented him as an atoning sacrifice through faith in his blood, to demonstrate his righteousness, because in his restraint God passed over the sins previously committed. ²⁶ God presented him to demonstrate his righteousness at the present time, so that he would be righteous and declare righteous the one who has faith in Jesus.

Romans 5:12-19

¹² Therefore, just as sin entered the world through one man, and death through sin, in this way death spread to all people, because all sinned. ¹³ In fact, sin was in the world before the law, but sin is not charged to a person's account when there is no law. ¹⁴ Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over those who did not sin in the likeness of Adam's transgression. He is a type of the Coming One.

¹⁵ But the gift is not like the trespass. For if by the one man's trespass the many died, how much more have the grace of God and the gift which comes through the grace of the one man Jesus Christ overflowed to many. ¹⁶ And the gift is not like the one man's sin, because from one sin came the judgment, resulting in condemnation, but from many trespasses came the gift, resulting in justification. ¹⁷ Since by the one man's trespass, death reigned through that one man, how much more will those who receive the overflow of grace and the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one man, Jesus Christ.

¹⁸ So then, as through one trespass there is condemnation for everyone, so also through one righteous act there is justification leading to life for everyone. ¹⁹ For just as through one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so also through the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous.

Romans 6:23

For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 8:28-30

²⁸We know that all things work together for the good of those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. ²⁹For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he would be the firstborn among many brothers and sisters. ³⁰And those he predestined, he also called; and those he called, he also justified; and those he justified, he also glorified.

1 Corinthians 10:13

No temptation has come upon you except what is common to humanity. But God is faithful; he will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able, but with the temptation he will also provide a way out so that you may be able to bear it.

1 Corinthians 10:31

So, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do everything for the glory of God.

1 Corinthians 13:4-8a

⁴Love is patient, love is kind. Love does not envy, is not boastful, is not arrogant, ⁵is not rude, is not self-seeking, is not irritable, and does not keep a record of wrongs. ⁶ Love finds no joy in unrighteousness but rejoices in the truth. ⁷ It bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

⁸ Love never ends.

2 Corinthians 5:17

Galatians 2:16-21

¹⁵ We are Jews by birth and not “Gentile sinners”
¹⁶ and yet because we know that a person is not justified by the works of the law but by faith in Jesus Christ, even we ourselves have believed in Christ Jesus. This was so that we might be justified by faith in Christ and not by the works of the law, because by the works of the law no human being will be justified.
¹⁷ But if we ourselves are also found to be “sinners” while seeking to be justified by Christ, is Christ then a promoter of sin? Absolutely not!
¹⁸ If I rebuild those things that I tore down, I show myself to be a lawbreaker.
¹⁹ For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live for God. I have been crucified with Christ ²⁰and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.
²¹ I do not set aside the grace of God, for if righteousness comes through the law, then Christ died for nothing.

Galatians 3:10-14

¹⁰ For all who rely on the works of the law are under a curse, because it is written: Everyone who does not do everything written in the book of the law is cursed.
¹¹ Now it is clear that no one is justified before God by the law, because the righteous will live by faith.
¹² But the law is not based on faith; instead, the one who does these things will live by them.
¹³ Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law by becoming a curse for us, because it is written: Everyone who is hung on a tree is cursed.
¹⁴ The purpose was that the blessing of Abraham would come to the Gentiles by Christ Jesus, so that we could receive the promised Spirit through faith.

Ephesians 2:8-10

⁸ For you are saved by grace through faith, and this is not from yourselves; it is God’s gift — ⁹ not from works, so that no one can boast.
¹⁰ For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared ahead of time for us to do.

Philippians 1:21

For me, to live is Christ and to die is gain.

Philippians 4:13

I am able to do all things through him who strengthens me.

Colossians 1:15-20

¹⁵ He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. ¹⁶ For everything was created by him, in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities — all things have been created through him and for him. ¹⁷ He is before all things, and by him all things hold together. ¹⁸ He is also the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, so that he might come to have first place in everything. ¹⁹ For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, ²⁰ and through him to reconcile everything to himself by making peace through his blood shed on the cross — whether things on earth or things in heaven.

2 Timothy 3:16-17

¹⁶ All Scripture is inspired by God and is profitable for teaching, for rebuking, for correcting, for training in righteousness, ¹⁷ so that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work.

1 John 1:7-10

⁷ If we walk in the light as he himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. ⁸ If we say, “We have no sin,” we are deceiving ourselves, and the truth is not in us. ⁹ If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. ¹⁰ If we say, “We have not sinned,” we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

1 John 4:7-8

⁷ Dear friends, let us love one another, because love is from God, and everyone who loves has been born of God and knows God. ⁸ The one who does not love does not know God, because God is love.
