Sept 14: Customer Service Workshop
Customer service skills demonstrate your ability to solve problems, work with others, and take initiative. Learn tips and tricks for improving your customer service skills so you can stand out in your current and future jobs.
11 a.m. to 12 p.m. in SUB 1, 3400
Register: sewcustomerservice.eventbrite.com

Nov 1: Leadership 101
Does the term “leader” apply only to those in power? What characteristics do we look for in leaders? In this session we’ll answer these questions and more while exploring leadership as it relates to your work today.
3 to 4:30 p.m. in The HUB 2400
Register: sewlead.eventbrite.com

Nov 3: Project Management
Walk away from this workshop with strategies for managing large projects. We will help you define the scope and terms of your projects, identify resources, strengthen skills, create a timeline, and stay organized.
10:30 to 11:45 a.m. in EDT, Room 3334
Register: learningservices.gmu.edu

Sept 29: Strengths: Discovering & Using Yours
Attend this interactive workshop to discover your top talents and strengths! You’ll identify and share your strengths, see how your they impact your choices, and learn new ways to use your them in your work and your life.
2 to 3:30 p.m. in The HUB 2400
Register: sewstrength.eventbrite.com

Oct 12: What would you do?
Can you navigate and thrive in a multicultural and globally diverse setting? In this session, you’ll reflect on how your culture may (or may not) show up at your work, and how that impacts your experience. Together we will examine common workplace dilemmas through “What would you do?” scenarios.
2 to 3:30 p.m. in SUB 1, 3400
Register: sewdiversity.eventbrite.com

Visit careers.gmu.edu/studentjobs to learn more