

ANGLICAN DIOCESE OF PITTSBURGH

CALENDAR OF PRAYER SEPTEMBER 2017 – AUGUST 2018

Annual Cycle of Prayer
30-Day Cycle of Prayer
7-Day Cycle of Prayer

Dear Praying Friends,

St. Paul defends his apostolic ministry to the Church in Corinth (see 2 Cor. 11) by listing all of the ways that he has suffered (beatings, shipwreck, hunger, sleepless nights, etc.). He then adds this, “And, apart from other things, there is the daily pressure on me of my anxiety for all the churches” (2 Cor. 11:28).

I so appreciate Paul’s honesty and share his anxiety. Through hundreds of conversations over this last year, I have been invited into the fear, confusion, and uncertainty that the congregations of this Diocese share. While the Lord is clearly working among us, the future is still murky; and a bit scary, in many cases. Aging and declining congregations; demographic shifts and declining towns; cultural changes; the “daily pressure on me of my anxiety.”

That’s where prayer comes in! As Paul writes to the Church in Philippi, “Do not be anxious [same word as above] about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God” (Phil. 4:6). Prayer is the antidote to the “daily pressure of my anxiety for all of the churches.” Knowing that we are woven together by the Spirit through our prayer for each other is encouraging. Mama Shari and I know that your prayers have sustained us; and that your prayer for each other opens doors for the Gospel and for God’s provision.

I commend to you this year’s Calendar of Prayer and encourage you to find creative uses for it. Along with praying for each other in the Prayers of the People each week, you might want to find ways of using the calendar in your personal prayers. I know of one person (not me, yet) who prays through the whole Calendar on a weekly basis!

While causes for anxiety will plague us until Jesus returns, God invites us to bring everything into His presence and at the throne of grace to “receive mercy and find grace to help in time of need” (Heb. 4:16).

With you drawing near to the throne of grace,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "+ Jim". The plus sign is small and positioned to the left of the name "Jim", which is written in a cursive, slightly slanted font.
