beginning of the Protestant Reformation. Out of the Reformation movement came 5 statements that are great reminders that any of us could use to simplify our faith and what it's about.

Sola Gracia, Sola Fide, Sola Christus, Sola Scriptura, Soli Deo Gloria. Only Grace, Only Faith, Only Christ, Only Scripture, Only God's Glory. Or to put it into a sentence: We are saved by grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone, according to Scripture alone, for the glory of God alone.

When we come back to the simplicity of biblical faith, we find freedom from the burden of religious duty and our inability to be perfect. We find the simple beauty of God's grace in the Gospel. We find a perfect savior in Jesus Christ. We marvel at how God gave us His Word so any one of us has access to Him, and we are thankful.

This fall, let the complications fall to the side and come back, simply, to Christ. He is more than enough for all of us.

Happy Reformation Day!

There's a day this month that is considered significant for two very different reasons. The last day of the month, in fact. October 31st is known by most people in our culture as Halloween. Kids get dressed up for trick or treating, and for them it's a fun night. Some people recognize the day as "Reformation Day". It was on October 31st, 1517, that a monk and theology professor named Martin Luther nailed 95 Theses- statements for open discussion- to the door of the church in Wittenberg. These statements directly questioned traditional aspects of the mainstream Western European Christian experience, and is considered to be the

Grand Re-Opening!!

We are so excited to finally be back in our newly remodeled sanctuary! Please come and join us on October 22nd.

**Service times 9:15 and 11am****

Our staff will be around between services and after second service to answer questions and show you all the beautiful changes!

Thank you so much for your patience during this renovation and we cannot wait for you to see how our worship space has transformed.

Operation Christmas Child

As a church we have given shoeboxes to Operation Christmas Child for many years. Would you like to have the opportunity to see another step in the process and volunteer in their packing facility? We are going December 14 from 6p-10p. Please let us know at the Get Involved table if you would like to volunteer with us.

1st Service are continuing learning about the Heroes of Mega City. Here in Mega City life is just like any other town, so long as that town has costumed heroes running about. Grab your mask and cape and step into our secret lair as we fight injustice with the inspiration of the heroes from the Bible.

2nd Service kids are continuing the series Ten Hut!

Attention, Recruits! We want YOU to join recruits Boston and Beans as they seek to join one of the most elite military units of all time. Each week Sergeant Niece teaches them lessons from the life of Joshua on courage, helping others, following God, remembering the great things God has done, prayer, and God's promises for our life. Fall in rank and join the training as we learn to keep step with the life of Joshua. Ten Hut!

Ten Hut Jr for (PreK & Kinder) continuing for October: Fall in rank and join the Help Corps as we march through the life of David. Each week your children will join Help Corps Recruit, Mardy, as he travels to new islands to help others! In Ten Hut Jr., your children will learn about the life of David and discover how they can live like the man after God's own heart.

Sunday Morning we are continuing a study on Spiritual Disciplines giving the students a brief understanding of what they are and how/why to practice them.

Basic. Is our new Wednesday night study that we will be going through to learn and relearn about the basics of our faith. We will be discussing God, Jesus, Holy Spirit, Fellowship, Teaching, Prayer and Communion.
