

BREA BAPTIST CHURCH

December 2018 & January 2019 highlights

sunday worship services
9:15A - classic service
11A - contemporary service

www.BreaBaptist.org
info@breabaptist.org

Do you have a Nativity in your home?

Nativity scenes are often very beautiful, peaceful depictions of something that may not have been all that peaceful. A young couple, unable to find a place to stay the night, laying their newborn baby in a manger. Ladies, was your birth something you'd call peaceful? And consider putting your baby in the hay of a feeding trough immediately after the birth. Most women I know don't want to take their newborn baby outside for a week or two, much less in a manger.

Then just as they were settling in, shepherds interrupt the scene- themselves having had their night interrupted by a chorus of angels proclaiming the birth of the Christ- the one promised by God to change the world back towards God's will and plan for it.

It's simple and beautiful and came and went pretty fast.... But it was the beginning of a life that changed the world like no other life before or since. And let me ask you, personally: has His life changed yours? Jesus can enter your life as gently, and as dramatically, as He came to live among us and lead you to abundant and eternal life if you will have Him.

God bless and Merry Christmas!

Monthly Night of Prayer 7pm
Wednesday, January 2, 2019

Prayerlessness is a declaration of independence from God.

We need God.

So let us pray- for our church, for God to use
us to reach others, and for His glory.

Tamales Are Back!

If you ordered tamales, you can pick them up Sunday, December 23rd between 9:15am-12:15pm here at BBC! You can still pre-order tamales at breabaptist.org!

Follow @breabaptist on Twitter,
Instagram, and Facebook.

Christmas Eve Candlelight Service

Monday, December 24th at 5pm

United Worship Service
10:30 am
Sunday, January 6, 2019

Followed by a Bring-Your-Own-Picnic at Lagos De Moreno Park (across the street)

Children's program available for Infant to Kindergarten

2019

Happy New Year!