YOU
ASKED FOR IT

This fall we are doing a series about questions! Several people have turned in questions and honestly, we'll probably not be able to get to all of them in the few weeks we have before Christmas this year. However, I'd like to observe that a lot of the questions have to do with God's forgiveness, how far it reaches, and if there's a chance that I or anyone else could somehow cancel myself out of grace. Be assured, BBC family. I am praying for myself and for you that we would be "... rooted and grounded in love, (and) able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, that (we) may be filled up to all the fullness of God." (Ephesians 3:17-19 NASB)

Our salvation does not depend on our ability to maintain a standard. It is, in fact, our inability to maintain the standard that makes us need Jesus. It depends on Him and His love for us; for us to be saved. He is perfect, and His love never fails.

So, think more about how perfect He is, and His perfect love for you, than on your imperfection. It isn't on you, it's on Him.

In His love, Dan Cook, Lead Pastor
