CANAAN COMMITTEES AND MINISTRIES HANDBOOK

Overview

The official and current version of the Canaan Committees and Ministries Handbook shall be kept in the church office and made available for use by any member of the church. The church office staff shall maintain the handbook. The Church Council shall review the handbook annually, with authority to recommend changes for the church to consider at the regular November Business Meeting and approve with a majority vote. An updated official and current version of the Canaan Committees and Ministries Handbook will be available electronically by the regular January Business Meeting each year. Any church member or church organization may initiate suggested changes in the handbook.

Addition, revision, or deletion of committees, ministries, church policies and/or procedures requires:

- (1) Recommendation of the church officer or organization to whose areas of assignment the policy and/or procedure relate.
- (2) Discussion by the Church Council.
- (3) Approval by the Church Council and changes to the handbook will be reported by the chairman or his designee to the congregation at a regular Business Meeting.

Church Council

The Church Council shall serve the church by leading in planning, coordinating, conducting, and evaluating the congregational ministries and programs of the church and its organizations. They will meet prior to each Business Meeting (January, March, May, July, September, November) on the first Sunday of the month at 4:00 P.M., unless changed by the Pastor. If the first Sunday of the month falls on a holiday, the Church Council will automatically be moved to the second Sunday of the month.

The primary functions of the Church Council shall be to recommend, to the church, suggested objectives and church goals; to review and coordinate ministry and program plans recommended by church officers, organizations, and committees; to recommend, to the church, new committees and/or ministries (See Appendix A, page 31); to recommend, to the church, the use of leadership, calendar time, and other resources according to program priorities; and to evaluate achievements in terms of church objectives and goals.

Regular members of the Church Council shall be the Pastor (Chairman), Chairman of Board of Trustees (Vice Chairman), Associate Pastors, remaining church and corporate officers (Chairman of Body of Deacons, Church Clerk, Treasurer, Financial Secretary), and chairmen and directors of committees and ministries. As Chairman of the Church Council, the Pastor is able to lead in developing a unified program that gives major attention to priority needs.

All matters agreed upon by the Church Council that call for action, not already approved, shall be referred to the congregation for vote.

Committees and Ministries

The Nominating Committee nominates members for standing committees and ministries (unless otherwise noted), and the Nominating Committee shall designate directors and chairmen (unless otherwise noted) for approval at the November Business Meeting. All individuals nominated are active members of Canaan Baptist Church in good standing. The members of the Nominating Committee will also be nominated at the November Business Meeting (nominated by pastoral staff, Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Body of Deacons). The term of service for all offices and positions in the church, except the Pastor, Associate Pastors, the Body of Deacons and the Board of Trustees, shall be one year (taking office in January and serving through December), at the expiration of which the officers and positions may be re-elected or reappointed. It is advisable that an individual serve on no more than two standing committees in the same year. Every year, approximately one third (1/3) of the standing committee members should rotate off of the committee and not resume service on that committee for at least one year at the discretion of the Nominating Committee. In general, committee members should rotate off a committee after three years of service, at the discretion of the Nominating Committee, but may be nominated for service on that committee again after one year. Rotation off of committees is encouraged to broaden member participation. Committee members may only serve in one position, within one committee or ministry (i.e. chairman or ex officio only). Also, two members of the same household may not serve on the same committee concurrently so there is no appearance of impropriety.

Pastoral staff, other church staff and volunteers who have been formally appointed to any position within Canaan Baptist Church, and who as part of that position are specifically authorized by the church to collect, handle, maintain, hold, protect or transfer covered property, are provided with fidelity bond coverage as part of Canaan's insurance policy.

7. Keep the committee chairperson informed about progress on assignments.
8. Report on assignments at committee meetings.
9. Ex officio members attend their assigned committee meetings as a resource and counsel, but will abstain from voting.

Duties of a Committee/Ministry Chairperson:

1. Know the purpose, duties, and members of the committee/ministry.
2. Request and administer committee/ministry budgeting. Organizations, programs, committees or ministries shall not maintain a separate bank account or keep funds for expenses of operation and ministry without approval by the congregation.
3. Serve as a member of the Church Council.
4. Plan the agenda for each meeting of the committee/ministry.
5. Each meeting should be conducted with a purpose, an agenda, necessary resources and a plan for follow-up. Committee meeting minutes shall be kept for every meeting with the date, members present, and action items voted upon, as well as, the results. Committee meeting minutes should be provided to the Church Clerk for filing.
6. Supervise the work of the committee/ministry secretary.
7. Assign responsibility to committee/ministry members for follow-through actions.
8. Lead the committee/ministry to:
 - Identify and schedule some activities/projects.
 - Develop a sequence of actions.
 - Prepare a timetable.

Determine the resources needed.

Complete activities/projects.

9. Report committee/ministry actions, as appropriate, to the Church Council and/or the church Business Meeting.
10. Collaborate as necessary with pastoral staff, other church staff members, church officers, Church Council, ministry directors, and other committees.
11. Maintain communication with pastoral staff, assigned by the Pastor, to act as an advisor and a resource.
12. Notify all members of the date and time of upcoming meetings including the ex officio member(s) and the individual pastoral staff, assigned by the Pastor to act as an advisor and a resource.
13. Obtain approval or direction from the committee members; may not act on an issue independently.

Standing Committees

A committee is defined as an organizational structure designed to spread the administrative load among members of the congregation and broaden participation to help the church perform its operational tasks.

All committees established in the Bylaws of Canaan Baptist Church as essential to the operation of the church are designated by an asterisk (*) ref. Section 3.04 and 10.01.

Personnel Committee *

Purpose: The Personnel Committee is to ensure the healthy personnel condition of the church and all paid individuals. The Personnel Committee is responsible for employee effectiveness by facilitating performance standards, resolving challenges, coaching employees, and obtaining reasonable resources to advance the skill sets of all employees. The Personnel Committee is to assist the Pastor in administration of the staff by doing the following: giving counsel to the Senior Pastor, developing and defining policies and procedures in the Personnel Manual, reviewing compensation recommendations from the Senior Pastor, recommending compensation to the Finance Committee and participating with the Senior Pastor in the hiring and dismissal of Associate Pastors and other church paid staff. The Personnel Committee will review all evaluations for the Associate Pastors and other church paid staff and conduct pastor evaluations. No salary or benefit adjustment will be made for the Senior Pastor, Associate Pastors or other church paid staff without the approval of the Personnel Committee. Salary and benefit adjustments are subject to the budgetary procedure on an annual basis.

Duties/Job Description:

1. Prepare, evaluate and implement performance standards and job descriptions for all paid employees.
2. Establish salary and benefits for all paid individuals subject to congregational approval of budgeted funds.
3. Review, evaluate, interview and recommend the hiring and termination of employment for all paid employees.
4. Develop church policies and procedures relating to all paid employees.
5. At least once a year, the Senior Pastor will provide the Personnel Committee with performance evaluation documentation on each employee, addressing strengths and areas needing improvement. The employee is given the opportunity to read the evaluation and to discuss it with the Senior Pastor and the Personnel Committee, and is encouraged to add comments to the performance evaluation form. The employee is then asked to sign the evaluation. Signing the evaluation does not indicate the employee agrees with the evaluation, only that it has been reviewed by the employee. An employee may file an appeal with the Personnel

Committee Chairman should he/she feel an evaluation was unfair or inaccurate. New employees will receive an evaluation after three month's employment, a follow-up review after six months, and yearly thereafter. The Personnel Committee has the right to consult with the Senior Pastor and request a performance appraisal on any employee, at any time, in addition to the yearly review.

6. The Chairman of the Personnel Committee will call a meeting, at least annually, with the Senior Pastor or the Senior pastor and pastoral staff, to conference on the state of the church including the past year's accomplishments, any perceived challenges, future goals, direction and vision.

Additional attendees will be:
