

Prayer Walk Guide

Follow the numbers on the map for prayer suggestions below:

1 - Conference Planning—Volunteers to be healthy, for all to be engaged and listening, for many to attend, for last minute details to fall into place, for guest travels to be smooth and safe, and for the Cedar Springs Mission staff to have peace in the busyness.

2 - Worship & Conference Speakers—Spirit-led worship, attendees to worship in a manner pleasing to the Lord, for God's word to transform lives. For conference speakers: health, safety, rest, and to be filled with God's Spirit.

3 - Safety in All Areas—Safety going in and out of parking lots, walking to and from buildings, protection for childcare areas, and for parking lots to be full.

4 - Children's Conference & Youth Program—Young hearts to be touched, seeds of mission interest planted, and for the next generation to stay strong in the faith.

5 - Holy Spirit Guidance—(Waterfall area) God's living water to be poured out at Cedar Springs, in Knoxville, in our nation and world. Ask for revival, for true repentance and hunger for God's word, for God to send his Holy Spirit anew.

6 - Cedar Springs Congregation—Hearts and minds prepared to receive what God reveals, to engage with and encourage our missionaries this week and after the conference, for all to pray, give and get involved in Missions.

7 - Attending Missionaries—Travel safety, good health, and rest this week, for Spiritual healing and renewal, for marriages and families that reflect God well, team relationships to be marked by love and unity, and for a great harvest.

• A CALL TO • PRAYER

February 24 – March 3, 2019

In support of the 2019 Global Mission Conference

PURPOSE

To humble ourselves individually and corporately, and seek God's forgiveness and guidance so that we might fully receive and respond to all that God speaks to us through the Global Mission Conference. We encourage you to use it daily, and include those in your household.

We welcome you to Prayer Walk the Cedar Springs campus, either individually or with a group, and have provided a guide on the back to help you.

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 24

SCRIPTURE: James 3:13-18, Psalm 34:14-15

THEME: Raising a Harvest with Peacemakers

PRAY: For each of the congregation to prepare for the conference by humbling themselves before God, repenting of sin, and asking God for the heart of a Peacemaker. Pray that, from young to old, we reject the lies of our culture and seek a pure heart before Him. For our coming guests, that they would bring peace into their areas of service. For Cedar Springs: For last minute details to fall into place for the conference, for guests, members, and volunteers to be healthy, and for good attendance.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 25

SCRIPTURE: Deuteronomy 16:15 and John 4:34-36

THEME: A Joy-Giving Harvest

PRAY: Make this a time for thanksgiving and praise—God is at work! He is calling people closed off from the gospel in unprecedented numbers. Pray translation work would progress quickly and without distortion of meaning. Ask for a mighty movement of the Holy Spirit among the remaining unreached people groups, for new believers to have hunger for the Word, to live transformed lives, and for entire families to come to faith.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 26

SCRIPTURE: Matthew 9:35-38

THEME: The Plentiful Harvest

PRAY: Jesus “worked” the harvest by teaching, preaching, and healing. Ask God if your time could be more kingdom spent? Ask the Lord of the Harvest to send you and your family anew on mission—to your family, neighborhood, and community. Pray for Cedar Springs to continue the work of the church as we wait God’s timing for a new Senior Pastor. For Cedar Springs: For our music leaders as they prepare to lead us in worship, for worship pleasing to the Lord, and for conference speakers to be full of the Spirit’s leading.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 27

SCRIPTURE: Psalm 69:13-18

THEME: Enemies of the Harvest

PRAY: For the congregation, staff and pastors, church plant leaders, and missionaries we support to not be weighed down by the everyday discouragement of mission (mire), and to always see the work of the enemy and resist him using the full armor of God. (Eph. 6) Pray for protection for believers in house churches, especially during worship. For Cedar Springs: For safety in travel for our guests, for adequate daily rest, and for safety for all on campus during the conference.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 28

SCRIPTURE: Psalm 66:8-12

THEME: Trials will be Replaced with Abundance

PRAY: For the Persecuted Church, for all to hear, for courage to grab hold of the offered gospel, for believers to stand strong in times of trial, to be a redemptive force in their communities, for development of local leaders with maturity and strength, for God to raise up government leaders who love their people more than power or wealth. For Cedar Springs: To warmly welcome our missionary guests and interact with them with interest and encouragement, and a growing heart for the nations.

FRIDAY, MARCH 1

SCRIPTURE: I Corinthians 9:7-10

THEME: Sharing in the Harvest

PRAY: For fresh ministry vision in each missionary, for a renewed sense of purpose and calling, to have joyful hope in a coming reward, for strength during struggles, for our church plants (New Life Gathering and Church of the Redeemer) to become beacons of light in their communities. For Cedar Springs: For presenters to have clear minds as they speak tonight, and for God to be glorified.

SATURDAY, MARCH 2

SCRIPTURE: Hebrews 12:28

THEME: Unshakable Harvest

PRAY: For churches everywhere to truly worship, to instill awe and reverence, to make disciple-making disciples, for those on mission to prioritize relationship with God, for their marriages and families to reflect all that God hopes for them. For Cedar Springs: For all in the congregation to commit to mission in some way, for transformed lives in Knoxville, for seeds of mission interest to be sown in our Children’s Program this week.

SUNDAY, MARCH 3

SCRIPTURE: Hebrews 12:1-3

THEME: Urgency of the Harvest

PRAY: We have great witnesses among us this week! How can we better urge them on? Ask for the conviction to set aside habits and activities that limit our gospel witness. What resources have been given to us, that we might give back to the Kingdom? For Cedar Springs: For our missionaries to be encouraged as they leave, for Cedar Springs to be a greater daily encourager of them, and for all of us to have a greater sense of urgency in sharing the gospel daily! To pray, go, serve.

 KEEP PRAYING & KEEP INFORMED!

Every Friday at 9:00 a.m., a group meets in the Fireside Room to pray for our missionaries and to hear urgent needs. Piers van der Merwe attends to give updates about Cedar Springs work worldwide.
