WEDNESDAY NIGHT ELECTIVES

Parenting is Heart Work: This four-week elective led by John Kohlmeyer begins February 3 in room B223. This class will help parents begin moving from a reward/punishment style to a heart-based approach with their kids. We'll discuss tools & strategies that can help us love our children well in in how we correct, give instruction, & teach taking responsibility for actions. Plus, we'll talk about connecting with them at their heart level, while teaching them of God's invitation, desire & calling toward a way of life freely centered on Christ.

Dynamics of Spiritual Life: This four-week elective led by Jim Branch begins February 10 in room B230. Join us as we talk about, and experience together, some of the ancient rhythms, practices, and dynamics of the spiritual life. We'll also consider how these rhythms are already present in our lives & how we can be more attentive & engaged in them in the future.
