This free event is open to anyone, and we encourage you to invite your family, friends, and neighbors. Your favorite activities and food trucks from last year will be back—plus we've added a few things to make the event even better!

Cedar Springs Disaster Relief Efforts

The Cedar Springs Disaster Relief Fund is receiving donations to help people affected by Hurricane Florence.

Our efforts in North Carolina are directed through Samaritan's Purse, a faith-based organization that is responding to the needs of those who have been affected by the hurricane. Samaritan's Purse volunteer teams are currently working at multiple response sites, helping homeowners in Jesus' Name by clearing debris, doing chainsaw work, tarping roofs, and mudding out flooded houses.

If you would like to make a financial contribution to assist North Carolina, please designate Disaster Relief with your contribution. Visit cspc.net/disaster-relief to give online. If giving by check, please put "Disaster Relief" in the memo line.

If interested in joining a Hurricane Florence Relief Team from Cedar Springs, please contact Carl Faught at cf@tds.net for more information.

BIBLE STUDIES FOR WOMEN

Women's Sunday Study Sunday Mornings

9:45 a.m.

B212

We are currently studying the first eleven chapters of Genesis. We are using the workbook series by Jen Wilkin God of Creation (you can pick up a workbook at Lifeway Store or online). Please join us as we discover how “the opening chapters of Genesis teach us fundamental truths about God. We watch Him bring light after darkness, order after chaos, and rest after toil—all through the power of His Word. Revisit familiar stories and historical figures, challenge your basic knowledge, and discover deeper meanings in the text. As God reveals Himself through Scripture, we can only begin to understand ourselves when we first glimpse the character, attributes, and promises of our Creator.” Leaders: Robin Carroll, Robin Stooksbury, and Christy McElroy (christymcelroy@rocketmail.com).

Precept

Wed., Oct. 17, 24, and 31

6:15 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

B224

No book is needed; just bring your Bible. For the Fall 2018 semester, we'll be finishing our study of the parables of Jesus. We examine each parable in the social context in which it was taught; where Jesus taught it, what was happening that prompted Jesus to use a particular parable, whom He was teaching, what the parable was meant to illustrate, and how it applies to us today. Each week's lesson is a stand-alone lecture, so you can join us anytime! Our study is taught by a team of leaders and is in a lecture and small group discussion format. If you need nursery, please register online at cspc.net/studiesforwomen and look under Wednesdays. Contact: Heidi, weimer5155@comcast.net.

Friday Morning Study

Fri., Oct. 5, 19, and 26

9:30 a.m.

Parlor

See God's blueprint for the Gospel unfold as we study the book of Isaiah. Called “the evangelical prophet” because of his numerous predictions of the coming Messiah and the salvation He would accomplish, Isaiah faithfully brought God's message to a people who resisted it for more than sixty years. Although Isaiah prophesied in the decades surrounding 700 BC, the warnings and promises he issued have direct application to our lives today. For more information, contact Laura Ivey by phone at (865)684-8016 or by email at lauraivey@live.com.

SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

Operation Christmas Child begins October 28 in the reception hall.
