Gospel-Driven Worship and Missions

We value the Great Commission and Christ's command to go and make disciples of all the nations. This is only accomplished as we live obediently and intentionally to proclaim the gospel to those around us. We also value the worship of God in Christ because it's the natural response to the salvation that God provides for us in Christ. Therefore, the connection between worship and missions is that missions exists because worship does not (Exodus 15:1-21; Matthew 28:18-20; Romans 10:1-17; Acts 1:8; Revelation 5:9-10).

I. Worship is the Natural Response to Salvation – Read Exodus 15:1-21

- A. What's the context for this celebration? What just happened?
- B. What's the difference between the Egyptians and the Israelites? Is there a difference?
- C. How does Exodus 15 describe the salvation of the Israelites from the Egyptians?
- D. How does this point us to the salvation and worship that is in Christ (Read Rev. 5:9-10)?

II. Evangelism is the Natural Response to Salvation – Read Matthew 28:16-20

- A. What are all the things that Christ commands us to do in the Great Commission?
- B. According to this passage, what should motivate us to share the gospel with others?
- C. What hinders you from sharing the good news of the gospel with others?
- D. What are some strategies that you can use to engage people in spiritual conversations?

III. Missions Exists Because Worship Does Not – Read Romans 10:1-4, 14-17

- A. Who is Paul talking about in vv.1-4? How does he describe them?
- B. What is Paul's logic in vv.14-15? How would you describe it in your own words?
- C. Combining vv.1-4 and vv.14-15, what two things are essential for a person's salvation (v.17)?
- D. What needs to change in your life for you to be an effective proclaimer of the gospel?
