Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by His Son, whom He appointed the heir of all things through whom also He created the world. He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of His nature and He upholds the universe by the word of his power.

Scriptural Call to Worship

John 16:7-15 (NLT)

But I tell you the truth: It is for your good that I am going away. Unless I go away, the Counselor will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you. When he comes, he will convict the world of guilt in regard to sin and righteousness and judgment: in regard to sin, because men do not believe in me; in regard to righteousness, because I am going to the Father, where you can see me no longer; and in regard to judgment, because the prince of this world now stands condemned. "I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear. But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come. He will bring glory to me by taking from what is mine and making it known to you. All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said the Spirit will take from what is mine and make it known to you.

Invocation

Theme Song

"This Is the Day"

*This is the day, this is the day that the Lord hath made,
That the Lord hath made.*

*We will rejoice, we will rejoice and be glad in it,
And be glad in it.*

This is the day that the Lord hath made;

We will rejoice and be glad in it.

This is the day, this is the day that the Lord hath made.
