Scriptural Call to Worship

Exodus 24:1-8

Then the LORD said to Moses, "Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel. You are to worship at a distance, but Moses alone is to approach the LORD; the others must not come near. And the people may not come up with him." When Moses went and told the people all the LORD's words and laws, they responded with one voice, "Everything the LORD has said we will do." Moses then wrote down everything the LORD had said. He got up early the next morning and built an altar at the foot of the mountain and set up twelve stone pillars representing the twelve tribes of Israel. Then he sent young Israelite men, and they offered burnt offerings and sacrificed young bulls as fellowship offerings to the LORD. Moses took half of the blood and put it in bowls, and the other half he splashed against the altar. Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it to the people. They responded, "We will do everything the LORD has said; we will obey." Moses then took the blood, sprinkled it on the people and said, "This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words."

Invocation Prayer

The Response of Praise

*Give of your best to the Master, give of the strength of your youth;
Throw your soul's fresh, glowing ardor into the battle for truth;
Jesus has set the example, dauntless was He, young and brave;*

~praise hymn continued~

*Give Him your loyal devotion, give Him the best that you have.
Give of your best to the Master, give of the strength of your youth;
Clad in salvation's full armor, join in the battle for truth.*
