sunday school module four

MODULE 4: FALL:BROKEN

DISCOVER

This month's Sunday School resource packet.
(found here: www.doxa-church.com/sundayschool)

This month's Spiritual Practice was forgiveness. Each participant took the time to write a letter or forgiveness to someone who had wronged them. Forgiveness at once acknowledges the wrong that was done, the impact it had on our lives and the grace shown to us in Christ that we can then model for those who has sinned against us as we have sinned against God.

NURTURE

1. Who is someone that has wronged or sinned against you? What did they do?
2. How did their sin affect your life? What were the consequences in your life?
3. Have you talked to them about the ways in which they hurt you? Why or why not? If so, how did they respond?
4. If you haven't talked to them yet, would you be able to simply tell them how they hurt you, without accusing them or holding them ransom to respond in a certain way?
5. Have you ever deeply considered the way that you have sinned against God and other people? What is an example of a time that you were forgiven for a way that sinned against someone else? How did their forgiveness affect you?

ACT

1. Identify someone that sinned against you but you have not forgiven, what is the next step towards forgiveness that you can take this week?
2. Take time to catalogue all of the ways that their sin has materially affected your life. This could be emotional scars, relational distance or any other way that it changed your life.
3. What would it look like to talk to this person? What are you afraid of? What makes you pause?
4. Take the time to write down the way this person sinned against you, then edit out any judgment or conjecture about their motives until it simply reflects the actual events that took place, how it made you feel and what impact it had on you.
5. Go take the next step and report back to your DNA partners next week.
