Welcome To Fifth Street Presbyterian Church

Our purpose for meeting together today is to meet with our Lord as a body of believers. We meet that we might hear Him speak in the reading and preaching of His Word. And, we meet to respond to His voice in our songs, prayers, and affirmations. In the ordinary worship of God we find extraordinary grace, encouragement and reason to hope. This corporate worship of God is the most important thing that happens upon the earth and we are delighted to have you with us as we approach the Father in Christ's name by the power of the Holy Spirit.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Evening Service will meet in the fellowship hall at 6 p.m. We sing, pray, hear God's Word, and enjoy fellowship together. For the dinner that follows, BBQ will be provided and you are asked to bring something to share that goes with BBQ. We hope you can join us. These evening services have become a place where relationships are nurtured and our souls are ministered to by the ordinary means of grace. What a wonderful way to end the Lord's day!

All Ladies of Fifth Street, you are warmly invited to participate in what promises to be an interesting and spiritually encouraging Bible Study beginning this Tuesday, from 10:30 a.m. - 12:00 noon, at the home of Nancy Moore, 1106 S. College. Study guides are available on the table across from the kitchen and you are encouraged to read lesson 1 and answer the questions in preparation for the study. Also, if you are not able to attend the daytime study, a second study in the evenings will begin on Thursday, October 16th, from 7:00-8:30 at the Simmons home, led by Caitlin Covey. We are using the same study guide as the morning group. You are encouraged to begin Lesson 1 on October 9th in preparation for the October 16th discussion.

Our joint evening worship service with Tyler Presbyterian Church is scheduled for October 26 at 6 p.m. We will worship in the sanctuary and refreshments will be provided after the service in the fellowship hall. This is a great opportunity to worship and fellowship with brothers and sisters of like mind which we hope will provide a small taste of heaven where we will join with saints from all over the world and throughout the centuries to worship our God. Pastor John Johnson will be preaching.

The Women's Ministry team is preparing for our joint worship service with Tyler Presbyterian Church on October 26 and are requesting that each family that is able provide a sweet and a savory snack of your choice. Snacks may be left in the kitchen Sunday morning if you are unable to attend the evening service. If you have questions you may contact Hazel Hebert at 903-509-0319.

Help is needed in the Nursery: Please speak with Rosie Abernathy if you are willing to help with the nursery.

An opportunity to pray: There is a room set aside in the educational wing for those who wish to pray before the worship service from 10:40-10:55. We will have someone there to begin and end the prayer time and a list of requests will be provided.
