

The Lord's Name is Majestic
Psalm 8

I. Who is God? v. 1

II. What is man? vs. 2-8

III. Who is God? v. 9

In singing this and praying it over, though we must not forget to acknowledge, with suitable affections, God's common favors to mankind, particularly in the serviceableness of the inferior creatures to us, yet we must especially set ourselves to give glory to our Lord Jesus, by confessing that he is Lord, submitting to him as our Lord, and waiting till we see all things put under him and all his enemies made his footstool.
Matthew Henry

Welcome To
Fifth Street Presbyterian Church

Our purpose for meeting together today is to meet with our Lord as a body of believers. We meet that we might hear Him speak in the reading and preaching of His Word. And, we meet to respond to His voice in our songs, prayers, and affirmations. In the ordinary worship of God we find extraordinary grace, encouragement and reason to hope. This corporate worship of God is the most important thing that happens upon the earth and we are delighted to have you with us as we approach the Father in Christ's name by the power of the Holy Spirit.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome our New Members: Michael and Karen Hampton were received into membership of Fifth Street last Sunday by transfer from Lakeside PCA of Southlake TX. The Hamptons have recently moved to the area after 17 years in Dallas.

The Evening Service will meet in the fellowship hall at 6 p.m. We sing, pray, hear God's Word, and enjoy fellowship together. Tonight we will enjoy light snacks with the time of fellowship. We hope you can join us. What a wonderful way to end the Lord's day!

Our joint evening worship service with Tyler Presbyterian Church is scheduled for next Sunday, October 26 at 6 p.m. We will worship in the sanctuary and refreshments will be provided after the service in the fellowship hall. This is a great opportunity to worship and fellowship with brothers and sisters of like mind which we hope will provide a small taste of heaven where we will join with saints from all over the world and throughout the centuries to worship our God. Pastor John Johnson will be preaching.

The Women's Ministry team is preparing for our joint worship service and is requesting that each family, that is able, provide a sweet and a savory snack of their choice. Snacks may be left in the kitchen Sunday morning if you are unable to attend the evening service. If you have questions you may contact Hazel Hebert.

Copies of an updated Church Directory are available in the narthex and the table beside the choir room. If you spot any changes that need to be made in your information please let us know and we will make the changes before we print additional copies. Also, these directories can also serve very well as a prayer list.

All Ladies of Fifth Street, you are warmly invited to participate in what promises to be an interesting and spiritually encouraging Bible Study this Tuesday, from 10:30 a.m. - 12:00 noon, at the home of Nancy Moore, 1106 S. College. Study guides are available.

Also, if you are not able to attend the daytime study, a second study in the evenings meets on Thursdays from 7:00-8:30 at the Simmons home, led by Caitlin Covey.

Help is needed in the Nursery: Please speak with Rosie Abernathy if you are willing to help with the nursery.

An opportunity to pray: There is a room set aside in the educational wing for those who wish to pray before the worship service from 10:40-10:55. We will have someone there to begin and end the prayer time and a list of requests will be provided.
