

Remembering the Good God Has Done
Psalm 9

Welcome To
Fifth Street Presbyterian Church

Our purpose for meeting together today is to meet with our Lord as a body of believers. We meet that we might hear Him speak in the reading and preaching of His Word. And, we meet to respond to His voice in our songs, prayers, and affirmations. In the ordinary worship of God we find extraordinary grace, encouragement and reason to hope. This corporate worship of God is the most important thing that happens upon the earth and we are delighted to have you with us as we approach the Father in Christ's name by the power of the Holy Spirit.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Our joint evening worship service with Tyler Presbyterian Church is scheduled for tonight at 6 p.m. Refreshments will be provided by our Women's Ministry team after the service in the fellowship hall. We hope to see you there. Pastor John Johnson will be preaching.

Ladies of Fifth Street, you are invited to participate in a morning Bible Study each Tuesday, from 10:30 a.m. - 12:00 noon, at the home of Nancy Moore, 1106 S. College. For those ladies not able to attend the morning study, Caitlin Covey is leading an evening class on Thursdays, from 7:00-8:30 p.m. at the Simmons home, 3007 Oak Knob. Study Guides are available for both studies. For more information on either study call Nancy or Caitlin.

All ladies are invited to an evening of praise and thanksgiving on Thursday, November 13th at 6:30 pm in the fellowship hall. Coffee and drinks will be provided by the Women's Ministry Team. Please bring a dessert to share.

A "sprinkling" for Caitlin Covey will be held on Sunday, November 16th from 4:00-5:30 pm. Come sprinkle Caitlin with diapers, wipes, and other baby necessities as we prepare to welcome her 3rd baby girl! Call Heather Marshall if you would like to help or have questions.

Copies of an updated Church Directory are available in the narthex and on the table outside the choir room. If you spot any changes that need to be made please let us know. Also, these directories can also serve very well as a prayer list.

An opportunity to pray: There is a room set aside in the educational wing for those who wish to pray before the worship service from 10:40-10:55. We will have someone there to begin and end the prayer time and a list of requests will be provided.

Help is needed in the Nursery: Please speak with Rosie Abernathy if you are willing to help with the nursery.

Session made a small change in our Sunday evening schedule. From now on we will be sharing in a meal together on the second and fourth Sundays only. It was felt that this would provide enough opportunity for fellowshiping over a meal without becoming a burden. We continue to meet every Sunday night for hymns, prayer, and Bible Study and would encourage your joining us for this second opportunity to Worship God on the Lord's Day.

The great commission leaves no doubt that the Biblical church is a church that reaches out to the unconverted. Our hope here is that we will grow more and more enthusiastic about the honor of laboring as ministers of reconciliation. As you prayerfully think about how you can communicate the gospel to the people in your life, include for your consideration books and booklets. There are some good books in the book room that you can purchase to give away - DeYoung's new book on the Bible is a good example. Also, there are booklets on the tables in the narthex and the tables in the hall that you can have to share with others.

We welcome children of all ages to our worship service, however a nursery is available for your younger children should you desire to use it.
