Announcements:

The Evening Service: Join us this evening at 6 p.m. in the fellowship hall to hear God's Word, sing God's praise, pray together, and enjoy the fellowship that we have together in Christ. Our evening services are more relaxed and informal than our morning service and such services in Southern Presbyterianism have often provided a place where the church family grows closer and a place where your visitors can be warmly introduced to our church family. We hope you will take advantage of both of these benefits as you join us for worship and invite others to come with you.

Read the entire Bible next year. Copies of Robert Murray McChyne's "Read the Bible in a Year" calendar of daily readings are available on the tables as you leave the sanctuary along with a number of other booklets that are available for your use with hopes that you will pass them along to others.

Each year we receive an offering for the PCA's Ministerial Relief Fund, an offering that is received to assist widows. This year we will receive the offering on December 14, following our worship service. You are encouraged to prayerfully consider taking part in this offering.

We wish to express our thanks to everyone who helped with the church decorating and to all those who provided the poinsettias.

As You Pray,

Glen and Jamie Milham and Ben and Hope Ferrell
Hazel Hebert

Dan & Brittany Smith, RUF, Tyler

Powledge Unit Bible Study on Monday with John Johnson

Robby Roberts, Church Planting with Crossworld, Italy

Pray that our Lord would draw people to faith in Christ through our church ministry.

A Christmas Gift for all year long...

What to get someone that has everything? a common question. I suggest a child's education. By sponsoring a child in Togo you will be supporting the work of New Harvest Missions while extending mercy to a needy child by providing the funds needed for that child's education. For $30 a month (which is 360 a year) you could support one of these children in the name of the person to which you wish to give a gift. They would receive the sponsorship information and would be able to follow up with the child and you can give to someone who has everything while also giving to someone who has very little. If you are interested please pick up one of the Bridge of Hope booklets in the narthex and speak to Pastor Simmons if you have more questions.

Books are always a great idea for gifts at Christmas and you are encouraged to use gift giving this year as an opportunity to share some of the great wealth of sound doctrine with such a gift. If you have questions about what to give you might check out our book shelf for books to purchase (in the library) or speak with Pastor Simmons. One that is highly recommended by Pastor Simmons, that really ought to be in the hands of everyone from High School age and up, is Kevin DeYoung's little book "Taking God At His Word". Copies of this book are available in the Book Room and on the tables as you leave the sanctuary.
