

Welcome To Fifth Street Presbyterian Church

Our purpose for meeting together today is to meet with our Lord as a body of believers. We meet that we might hear Him speak in the reading and preaching of His Word. And, we meet to respond to His voice in our songs, prayers, and affirmations. In the ordinary worship of God we find extraordinary grace, encouragement and reason to hope. This corporate worship of God is the most important thing that happens upon the earth and we are delighted to have you with us as we approach the Father in Christ's name by the power of the Holy Spirit.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

East Texasí which we think is a good idea!

We welcome to our membership Mathew, Jamie, and Levi Wylie who come to us from Westminster PCA in Greenville TX. The Wylies are both native Texans, A&M graduates, and employees of Mother Francis (Matthew works in Jacksonville and Jamie in Whitehouse). They plan to stay in Sunday Evening Service: Join us for worship at 5 p.m. every Sunday and this Month for a meal to follow on the first and third Sundays. We sing hymns, pray, and hear God's Word--presently we are in Romans 14. We meet in the Fellowship Hall so please come in the back doors.

We have a congregational meeting called for today following the morning worship service. The meeting is called for the nomination and election of Trustees. The Session is presenting two nominations: Dr. Maxwell Kawku and Harry Lundgaard. Nominations may also be made from the floor by adult members of our church. The meeting will only take a few moments so we ask you to stay through the meeting so you can visit with others after the service.

Please join us for an afternoon of Christmas caroling on Sunday, December 20th. This is a wonderful way to connect with some of our members who are unable to attend church regularly because of health reasons. We will meet in the front parking lot at 2:30. See you then! Matt LaRoy.
