1 Peter 3:7

- I. Live this way.
 - A. Living before God.

 - B. Understanding your wife.

 - C. Honoring her as a weaker vessel.

- II. Live this way because
 - A. Your wife is an heir with you.

 - B. Your wife is an heir of God's grace.

- III. Live this way so that
 - A. Your prayers may not be hindered.

Welcome To Fifth Street Presbyterian Church

Our purpose for meeting together today is to meet with our Lord as a body of believers. We meet that we might hear Him speak in the reading and preaching of His Word. And, we meet to respond to His voice in our songs, prayers, and affirmations. In the ordinary worship of God we find extraordinary grace, encouragement and reason to hope. This corporate worship of God is the most important thing that happens upon the earth and we are delighted to have you with us as we approach the Father in Christ's name by the power of the Holy Spirit.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Hopkins small group meets at 5:30 p. m. tonight at the home of Gary and Karen Hopkins. The group is discussion oriented, offering encouragement and prayer for one another. Light snacks and plenty of time for fellowship are included. Everyone is welcome.

You Are Invited: All mothers and daughters are invited to attend a Baby Sprinkle and Brunch in honor of Heather Marshall. Join us in the fellowship hall on Saturday, March 15th, at 10:00 a.m. Help Heather prepare for her baby girl's arrival by sprinkling her with diapers and wipes! If you have questions contact Rebecca at rj.wiesinger@gmail.com or 214-226-1841.

A big "Thank You" to all who helped make Buster's 90th birthday so special. We truly appreciated your attendance and all the goodies you furnished. God bless you! Jean Barlow

After the service a Ruling Elder will be available at the front of the sanctuary if you wish to speak or pray with someone.

The March calendar is available on the tables in the narthex and hallway.

Offering counters this week are Gary Hopkins and Milford Brinton.

Ushers for March are John Orbaugh (Cap.) Glen Milham, Bob Pettit, Matthew Marshall & Maxwell Kwaku. Thanks to our February Ushers: Fletcher Smith (Cap.) Chuck Booth, Fred McDowell, Kent Travis.

For today's service: A little help from our Larger Catechism

How is our baptism to be improved by us?

The needful but much neglected duty of improving our baptism, is to be performed by us all our life long, especially in the time of temptation, and when we are present at the administration of it to others; by serious and thankful consideration of the nature of it, and of the ends for which Christ instituted it, the privileges and benefits conferred and sealed thereby, and our solemn vow made therein; by being humbled for our sinful defilement, our falling short of, and walking contrary to, the grace of baptism, and our engagements; by growing up to assurance of pardon of sin, and of all other blessings sealed to us in that sacrament; by drawing strength from the death and resurrection of Christ, into whom we are baptized, for the mortifying of sin, and quickening of grace; and by endeavoring to live by faith, to have our conversation in holiness and righteousness, as those that have therein given up their names to Christ; and to walk in brotherly love, as being baptized by the same Spirit into one body. How do they that worthily communicate in the Lord's supper feed upon the body and blood of Christ therein?

As the body and blood of Christ are not corporally or carnally present in, with, or under the bread and wine in the Lord's supper, and yet are spiritually present to the faith of the receiver, no less truly and really than the elements themselves are to their outward senses; so they that worthily communicate in the sacrament of the Lord's supper, do therein feed upon the body and blood of Christ, not after a corporal and carnal, but in a spiritual manner, yet truly and really, while by faith they receive and apply unto themselves Christ crucified, and all the benefits of his death.
