

Kiss The Son

Psalm 2

I. The Kingdom's Resistance 1-3

II. The Kingdom's Certainty 4-7

III. The kingdom's Promise 8-9

IV. The Kingdom's Demand 10-12

David boasts that his kingdom, though assailed by a vast multitude of powerful enemies, would, notwithstanding, be perpetual, because it was upheld by the hand and power of God. He adds, that in spite of his enemies, it would be extended even to the uttermost ends of the earth. And, therefore, he exhorts kings and other rulers to lay aside their pride, and receive, with submissive minds, the yoke laid upon them by God; as it would be vain for them to attempt to shake it off. All this was typical, and contains a prophecy concerning the future kingdom of Christ.

—Calvin's introduction to Psalm 2

Welcome To Fifth Street Presbyterian Church

Our purpose for meeting together today is to meet with our Lord as a body of believers. We meet that we might hear Him speak in the reading and preaching of His Word. And, we meet to respond to His voice in our songs, prayers, and affirmations. In the ordinary worship of God we find extraordinary grace, encouragement and reason to hope. This corporate worship of God is the most important thing that happens upon the earth and we are delighted to have you with us as we approach the Father in Christ's name by the power of the Holy Spirit.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The evening service returns: Beginning next Sunday, September 7, we return to an evening service and a second opportunity on the Lord's day to hear God's Word, sing God's praise, pray for God's grace, and spend time with each other in fellowship around a meal. This coming Sunday we will enjoy some BBQ together and you are invited to bring anything that you want to share that goes with BBQ, and as you know, anything goes with BBQ. The service starts at 6:00 P.M. in the fellowship hall, is informal, and includes hymns you select, a time of cooperate prayer, and this Sunday Pastor Simmons will be giving a report on his recent trip to Togo. (Following weeks will include a verse by verse study of the book of Romans.) This addition of an evening service is not only a great place to introduce non-members to our church in a more relaxed setting but is also a great place to grow our relationships with each other.

An opportunity to pray: Beginning next Sunday we will have a room set aside in the educational wing for those who wish to pray before the worship service from 10:40-10:55. We will have someone there to begin and end the prayer time and a list of request will be provided.

Luther reminds us that our hope for each service and every part of our church rests in the work of God through His ordinary means of grace: "If any good is to be done and evil is to be prevented, it must to this day be accomplished by prayer. Therefore, although you think you are unfit and unworthy, do not neglect your praying; otherwise no one would pray. Rather every Christian should say to himself; Since prayer is so pleasing to God and so highly necessary and useful to me, to the church, and to temporal government, I, too, intend to come to the assistance of the church with my prayers as much as I can; for I know that prayer shall not and cannot be offered in vain." Martin Luther

As You Pray, please also pray for:

- Rebecca Wiesinger & Caitlin Covey

Women's Ministry: Bonjour! The Fifth Street Bistro, the inaugural Women's Ministry luncheon, will now be held in the Olivet Sunday School Class Room, same date and time: Saturday, September 6, 2012 from 10:00 AM to Noon. Cost for the meal is $5 at the door (but scholarships are available). Please RSVP by today, by signing up at the Women's Ministry table across from the kitchen or by calling Hazel Hebert. Join us for fun, testimonies, fellowship, announcements and more. Our Hospitality Coordinator has once again lined up a tasty lunch you don't want to miss--Bon Appetit! If you're unable to attend the Fifth Street Bistro we want to hear from you before our Fall events begin. Talk to Caitlin Covey for details.

Also for our women: James urges us to pray for one another, so come walk in prayer with a sister in Christ for a season. After we pray with our partner for around ten weeks, we'll gather to praise God for his mercy, grace, and answered prayers. If you'd like to be a part of the Prayer Partner ministry, please sign up at the Women's Ministry table across from the kitchen. See Susan Parks for more information. Partners will be announced at the Fifth Street Bistro. You need not be present to participate; we just need your name by Saturday, September 6, 2012.

We are in need of help in the nursery, if you are able to help from time to time please speak with Rosemary Abernathy. This is a much needed ministry especially as our Lord continues to bring little ones into our congregation.

Free Books in the Book Room (The Library): If you have a book that you are finished with and want to make it available for others or are looking for a book to read, check out our "Books to Trade" table in the Book Room (library). You can leave good Christian books for others or pick up a book that someone else is finished with. The books are free for your taking and the books you place there are given as gifts to the next reader. Though we will keep an eye on the donations it should not be assumed that all the books have been scrutinized, as always use your discernment and enjoy a good read.

Next Sunday we come again to the Lord's Table and you are encouraged to spend some time this week preparing yourself for this means of grace.
