

Welcome To Fifth Street Presbyterian Church

We gather today to hear God speak in the reading and preaching of His Word. And, we gather to respond to His voice in our songs, prayers, and affirmations. In this ordinary worship of God we find extraordinary grace, encouragement and reason to hope. This corporate worship of God is the most important thing that happens upon the earth and we are delighted to have you with us as we approach the Father in Christ's name by the power of the Holy Spirit.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

February 12, 2017

Our monthly Women's Fellowship is this Tuesday, February 14, 7:00 p.m. at the home of Jane Simmons. A brief discussion of an attribute of God is presented by Jane followed by light refreshments and laughter. All women of all ages are welcome, you are encouraged to bring a friend. See Caitlin or Jane with questions.

INVITING ALL LADIES! A new Bible study for ladies will begin this Wednesday, February 15. The class will meet each Wednesday through April 26 at 10:30 a.m. in the Fellowship Hall. This semester we will begin the study "Dust to Glory" (an overview of the Bible with R.C. Sproul). If you would like to participate in the class, please visit the registration table in the hallway near the Fellowship Hall. There is no cost associated with the class and childcare will be available. If you have any questions, please see Kim Covington.

Join us for worship this evening at 5:00 p.m. We will sing hymns, pray, and hear God's word. We meet in the Fellowship Hall so please come in the back doors. Please stay for our evening meal of soup and sides.

As you pray please remember:

Grace Does Not Abolish the Law. "The Law is not to be discarded because of the promise of grace. It is rather to be taught, that discipline and the doctrine of good works may be retained and we may be taught to recognize and humble ourselves after we have sinned. This is the true and necessary use of the Law."
--Martin Luther
