

Welcome To Fifth Street Presbyterian Church

We gather today to hear God speak in the reading and preaching of His Word. And, we gather to respond to His voice in our songs, prayers, and affirmations. In this ordinary worship of God we find extraordinary grace, encouragement and reason to hope. This corporate worship of God is the most important thing that happens upon the earth and we are delighted to have you with us as we approach the Father in Christ's name by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Our summer study of the Westminster Confession of Faith has begun. This is a combined Adult and Sr/Jr High Class meeting in the Fellowship Hall. The class will be taught by a rotation of some of our elders and will make it through about half of the confession this summer. Next summer we will complete the study.

Taking a break and making a change. Our Wednesday morning men's study will be taking a break for the month of June and on our return we will be making a change in our study topic. On July 5 we will begin a study of Douglas Kelly's Creation and Change. Pastor Simmons has ordered some copies for those interested, the cost is $16 each.

Pastor Simmons will be on vacation next Sunday. We are glad to have Rev. Tom Duke fill the pulpit in the morning and Rev. Clint Covington in the evening. Our communion service scheduled for the 18th will be rescheduled for the 25th.

Please plan to join us for our evening service at 5:00 p.m. which will be followed by a fellowship meal. The church is providing hamburgers, so bring your favorite side dish or dessert to share.

A pray from Calvin at the end of his first lecture (1:1-6) on the book of Jeremiah: "Grant, Almighty God, that as thou has not only provided for thine ancient Church, by choosing Jeremiah as thy servant, but has also designated that the fruit of his labors should continue to our age,—O grant that we may not be unthankful to thee, but that we may so avail ourselves of so great a benefit, that the fruit of it may appear in us to the glory of thy name; may we learn so entirely to devote ourselves to thy service, and each of us be so attentive to the work of his calling, that we may strive with united hearts to promote the honor of thy name, and also the kingdom of thine only-begotten Son, until we finish our warfare, and come at length into that celestial rest, which has been obtained for us by the blood of thine only Son. Amen."
