

Welcome To Fifth Street Presbyterian Church

Our purpose for meeting together today is to meet with our Lord as a body of believers. We meet that we might hear Him speak in the reading and preaching of His Word. And, we meet to respond to His voice in our songs, prayers, and affirmations. In the ordinary worship of God we find extraordinary grace, encouragement and reason to hope. This corporate worship of God is the most important thing that happens upon the earth and we are delighted to have you with us as we approach the Father in Christ's name by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Our Christmas Cantata service will be at 10:30 a.m. on December 18th. There will be no Sunday School on this day.

Church office will be closed this Thursday and Friday for Thanksgiving.

For December 25th Sunday School and the evening service is canceled.

Joe and I want to thank all those of you who were so kind and thoughtful to us when I fell and broke my wrist. Words cannot express how grateful we are for the delicious meals you brought, as well as for the intercessory prayers you offered on our behalf. We love and value our church family. Love in Christ, Beverly Kanewske

J.C. Ryle on Public Worship

“The best public worship is that which produces the best private Christianity. The best church services for the congregation are those that make its individual members most holy at home and alone. If we want to know whether our own public worship is doing us good, let us try it by these tests. Does it quicken our conscience? Does it send us to Christ? Does it add to our knowledge? Does it sanctify our life? If it does—we may depend on it—it is worship of which we have no cause to be ashamed.”
