Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. *Affirmation of Faith

Heidelberg Catechism 72-74

Minister: Is, then, the outward washing with water itself the washing away of sins?

Congregation: No, for only the blood of Jesus Christ and the Holy Spirit cleanse us from all sin.

Minister: Why then does the Holy Spirit call Baptism the washing of regeneration and the washing away of sins?

Congregation: God speaks thus with great cause, namely, not only to teach us thereby that just as the filthiness of the body is taken away by water, so our sins are taken away by the blood and Spirit of Christ; but much more, that by this divine pledge and token He may assure us that we are as really washed from our sins spiritually as our bodies are washed with water.

Minister: Are infants also to be baptized?

Congregation: Yes, for since they, as well as their parents, belong to the covenant and people of God, and through the blood of Christ both redemption from sin and the Holy Spirit, who works faith, are promised to them no less than to their parents, they are also by Baptism, as a sign of the covenant, to be ingrafted into the Christian Church, and distinguished from the children of unbelievers, as was done in the Old Testament by circumcision, in place of which in the New Testament Baptism is appointed. Amen.
