

WEEK FOUR

LUKE 2:8-20

Shepherds Visit

ASK
THIS

Who needs to hear the good news?

WEEK FOUR

LUKE 2:8-20

Shepherds Visit

ASK
THIS

Who needs to hear the good news?

DO THIS

DRIVE TIME

While on your drive, ask your preteen if they have ever had the opportunity to share the good news about Jesus. If they haven't, maybe tell them about a time someone shared it with you or you with someone else. Encourage them by saying that they don't always have to use words to share the good news, they can use their actions! Be a good friend, let others go first, find a way to serve. All those things show the love of Jesus.

DO
THIS

DRIVE TIME

While on your drive, ask your preteen if they have ever had the opportunity to share the good news about Jesus. If they haven't, maybe tell them about a time someone shared it with you or you with someone else. Encourage them by saying that they don't always have to use words to share the good news, they can use their actions! Be a good friend, let others go first, find a way to serve. All those things show the love of Jesus.

REMEMBER THIS

"God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son. Anyone who believes in him will not die but will have eternal life."
John 3:16, NIV

REMEMBER THIS

"God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son. Anyone who believes in him will not die but will have eternal life."
John 3:16, NIV

LIFE
APP

COMPASSION—Caring enough to do something about someone else's need

LIFE
APP

COMPASSION—Caring enough to do something about someone else's need

DON'T PACK UP CHRISTMAS

By Autumn Ward

I love Christmas decorations. They have a way of making everything more beautiful. Even the most humble of homes becomes a breathtaking sight with just a few strands of twinkling lights.

Out of all our decorations, I do have a favorite. It's my wooden nativity. I display it right inside our front door. I love the beauty in the smooth wood and how it reminds me daily what we are truly celebrating. The true story of profound love displayed through everyday people like you and me.

The faith of young Mary, trusting in God's plan.

The obedience of Joseph, taking Mary as his wife.

The truth of Jesus, the Son of God, coming to take His place in the world He created, among the people He would die for.

The hospitality of the innkeeper.

The humility of the stable.

The praise of the angels.

The joy of the shepherds.

The seeking of the wise men.

Scripture being fulfilled in one holy night.

The nativity is a beautiful reminder of who God is and who He wants us to become. And even though December 26th marks the time when we begin rolling up the lights and putting away the nativity, it doesn't mean we have to pack up Christmas. As parents, we have opportunities every day to lead the way and model for our children ways to keep the most beautiful parts of Christmas up all year long.

So yes, pack up Joseph, Mary, and the babe lying in a manger. Pack up the stable and the sheep, the angels, wise men, and shepherd. But don't pack up Christmas.

Keep faith on display as you trust in God's plan.

Keep obedience to God's Word, even when you don't understand.

Keep your belief in the truth of scripture, even when it doesn't make sense.

Keep hospitality active, as you open your home to others.

Keep humility in every room of your home as you put others first.

Keep praise on your lips, no matter your circumstance.

Keep seeking God, in all you do.

The good news is that no matter where you are in your parenting journey, even the most humble of homes can be a breathtaking sight when we choose to not pack up Christmas, but rather live it out in our everyday lives, and be the person we—and most importantly God—want our kids to be.

For more blog posts
and parenting resources, visit:
ParentCue.org

Download the free Parent Cue App
AVAILABLE FOR IOS AND ANDROID DEVICES

I love Christmas decorations. They have a way of making everything more beautiful. Even the most humble of homes becomes a breathtaking sight with just a few strands of twinkling lights.

Out of all our decorations, I do have a favorite. It's my wooden nativity. I display it right inside our front door. I love the beauty in the smooth wood and how it reminds me daily what we are truly celebrating. The true story of profound love displayed through everyday people like you and me.

The faith of young Mary, trusting in God's plan.

The obedience of Joseph, taking Mary as his wife.

The truth of Jesus, the Son of God, coming to take His place in the world He created, among the people He would die for.

The hospitality of the innkeeper.

The humility of the stable.

The praise of the angels.

The joy of the shepherds.

The seeking of the wise men.

Scripture being fulfilled in one holy night.

The nativity is a beautiful reminder of who God is and who He wants us to become. And even though December 26th marks the time when we begin rolling up the lights and putting away the nativity, it doesn't mean we have to pack up Christmas. As parents, we have opportunities every day to lead the way and model for our children ways to keep the most beautiful parts of Christmas up all year long.

So yes, pack up Joseph, Mary, and the babe lying in a manger. Pack up the stable and the sheep, the angels, wise men, and shepherd. But don't pack up Christmas.

Keep faith on display as you trust in God's plan.

Keep obedience to God's Word, even when you don't understand.

Keep your belief in the truth of scripture, even when it doesn't make sense.

Keep hospitality active, as you open your home to others.

Keep humility in every room of your home as you put others first.

Keep praise on your lips, no matter your circumstance.

Keep seeking God, in all you do.

The good news is that no matter where you are in your parenting journey, even the most humble of homes can be a breathtaking sight when we choose to not pack up Christmas, but rather live it out in our everyday lives, and be the person we—and most importantly God—want our kids to be.

For more blog posts
and parenting resources, visit:
ParentCue.org

Download the free Parent Cue App
AVAILABLE FOR IOS AND ANDROID DEVICES