Dear Church Family,

There are not enough words to truly express all I want to say. My heart is so full of love, gratitude, and amazement for everything you have done to celebrate my retirement as church organist. I continue to be humbled by the outpouring of God’s many blessings on Sunday. From the moving prayer service, to the retirement presentation, gifts, cards, honorarium, and beautiful reception, you have deeply touched my heart. I will be eternally grateful for your love and encouragement.

What a joy and privilege it has been to serve at FBC. Thank you for your love and support throughout the many years. I will always cherish the precious memories and blessings. You will forever be my home church.

With much love and appreciation,

Cindy
