"But as it is written: Eye has not seen, nor ear heard, nor have entered into the heart of man the things which God has prepared for those who love Him." 1 Corinthians 2:9

Our 2nd annual Men's Cookoff is Sunday night. This is a church wide event and it's a great opportunity to fellowship with our church family. Please note the TIME: We will start at 5:00p.m. Men, if you are bringing a dish to be judged, please have it in the fellowship hall a few minutes before 5:00p.m. We will then all meet in the Sanctuary while the judging is taking place. The Food and Fellowship Committee has asked that everyone else bring a side dish for all to enjoy.

Our new Wednesday night study, "Our Church, Experiencing God" continues this week. We hope you will join us as we discuss the topic of Fellowship. Have a blessed week.

Live Stream Update

We have recently upgraded our streaming service to provide an opportunity to watch live, via the internet, all our Sunday morning services and occasionally some of our other special services. There are a couple of different ways to view our services. You can watch from our Facebook or Twitter pages. You can also watch from our website. The easiest way is to download the free app called Sunday Streams. After that, you will put in the login FBCGrenada.
