Children who are of the appropriate age received an invitation to join our Communicants class. This is just a reminder that the class runs from Sunday, March 10th through Sunday, April 7th. 4:45 PM

“The youngest children enrolled in a church preschool always steal the show at the annual Christmas program. Last year the children - none of whom could read yet - held up brightly colored three-foot-high placards that spelled out Christmas words. The highlight came when one foursome walked onstage in reverse order and proudly spelled RATS.”
