Christ is Knocking

Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me."

Revelation 3: 20

Christ is graciously pleased by His Word and Spirit to come to the door of the heart of sinners. He draws near to them in a way of mercy, ready to make them a kind visit. He finds this door shut against Him. The heart of man is by nature shut up against Christ by ignorance, unbelief, sinful prejudices. When He finds the heart shut, He does not immediately withdraw, but He waits to be gracious, even till His head is filled with the dew. He uses all proper means to awaken sinners, and to cause them to open to Him. He calls by His Word, He knocks by the impulses of His Spirit upon their conscience. Those who open to Him shall enjoy His presence, to their great comfort and advantage. He will sup with them. He will accept of what is good in them. He will eat his pleasant fruit and He will bring the best part of the entertainment with Him. If what He finds would make but a poor feast, what He brings will make up the deficiency. He will give fresh supplies of graces and comforts, and thereby stir up fresh actings of faith, and love, and delight; and in all this Christ and His repenting people will enjoy pleasant communion with each other.

Alas! What do careless obstinate sinners lose by refusing to open the door of their heart to Christ!

Matthew Henry, 1662-1714

Announcements

Dr. Jerry Bilkes will not be with us today. His son had an emergency appendectomy.

Dan Bivona's surgery went well. While not all of the shoulder could be repaired, enough was, so that he has relief. With rest and rehabilitation, he will receive strength again.

Today is the final session for the Sunday School/Catechism Classes for the season. We thank the teachers and elders for their labors. May children and adults be blessed by all that they have heard in this year to the honor and glory of God most High.

Pastor Lewis, Catherine, and their family will be leaving for vacation at the end of this week. On the next Lord's Day, the Elders will conduct reading services and on July 1st, Student Mark Wagenaar will be with us to speak an edifying word, D.V.

The Consistory and congregation wish to extend their congratulations to all of the graduates on all levels. We pray that you would know the blessing of the Lord as you seek Him in all things for your future.

Kelly Brouwer and Jennifer Wursten have requested that their membership be transferred to the Hamilton FRC congregation. We wish them the Lord's blessings there.

With regret, the Consistory announces that Roger and Beverly Vlietstra have withdrawn their membership from us, along with their children, Laura, Matthew, and Brian.

Please remember to sign up to volunteer or to donate snacks for VBS. There are sign-up sheets posted in the hallway. Thank you.
