HE CAME TO SAVE THE LOST

Sinners are lost. If they were not lost, Christ would not have come to seek and to save them. "For the Son of Man is come to seek and to save that which was lost." And since He has come from heaven to earth and shed His precious blood to save them, 'they will not come to Him that they might have life.' They are out of His fold, having no part or lot in His kingdom. 'He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.' They are lost and totally insensible of their condition.

Christ knows His own sheep before they are brought into His fold. The Good Shepherd knows just the number that are missing. If one of them be gone astray, He knows it. Indeed, He would not go after it, did He not know that it was gone, and it would not of itself, return. He says: 'Other sheep I have, which are not of this fold; them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.' He knows who they are, and what their names are. 'He calleth His own by name and leadeth them out.' He knows how far they have wandered in the paths of sin and folly. His eye is ever upon them and follows them in all their wanderings. Is there one more lost sinner in this place to be saved? Where is he? What is his name? Christ knows. Yes, the Lord knoweth them that are His.'

Christ finds the sinner. He finds him in his sins – careless about his soul – casting off fear and restraining prayer – wandering farther and farther from God, from happiness, and from heaven. He often comes upon him by surprise in the midst of his wickedness and awakens him to a sense of his guilt. He trembles and is alarmed; but he is unwilling to return, and would fain flee out of the Savior's hand. No sinner will ever awaken himself. Left to himself, not another sinner in this house will ever begin in earnest to seek the salvation of his soul. Every Christian knows this to be true in relation to himself. He knows that after he was awakened, if the Spirit of God had left him, he should return to his sinful courses. All who have found the Savior will acknowledge that the Savior first found them.

Announcements

We extend our heartfelt sympathy to John Cooper and his family in the death of Andrew Dumont, his son-in-law, whom we have remembered often in prayer in times past. May the Lord be their comfort and strength at this difficult time.

Randy DeJong hopes to be moved to JDT Medical Rehab in Lincoln Park today. We thank the Lord for His goodness to Randy thus far and pray for continued healing.

Jamie and Teddy VanDeMoere will be leaving for about a month to the Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP) to receive therapy for eating. This will enable Teddy to be able to chew and swallow food, doing away with being fed through a tube. We pray the Lord to bless this therapy to Teddy. What a mercy for him to be able to do an activity that we take for granted. Something to meditate on!

Members of the Evangelism Committee will visit the Good Shepherd Mission on Friday. May the hearts of these men be turned to seek the Lord in their need.

Just a reminder---Vacation Bible School is scheduled for July 16-20th which is next week,D.V. If you have signed up to bring supplies or refreshments, please bring them in. Also, there are still areas needed for volunteers or to donate snacks or materials for VBS. The sign-up sheets are posted in the hallway. Thank you for your help.
