"But we preach Christ crucified..."

1 Corinthians 1:23

I do not ask, whether you are assured of salvation, nor whether you believe that your sins are pardoned and that you are beloved of God in Christ. These are no parts of justifying faith, but excellent fruits of it, and they that receive them, are comforted by them; but, perhaps, you may never receive them while you live, and yet be a true heir of rest. Do not say then, 'I cannot believe that my sins are pardoned, or that I am in God's favor, and therefore I am no true believer.' This is a most mistaken conclusion. The question is, Whether you do heartily accept of Christ, that you may be pardoned, reconciled to God, and so saved? Do you consent that He shall be your Lord, who has bought you, and that He shall bring you to heaven in His own way? This is justifying, saving faith, and the mark by which you must try yourself. Yet still observe, that all this must be heartfelt and real, not feigned or with reservations. It is not saying, as that dissembling son, 'I go, Sir; and went not.' If anything has more of the power over you than Christ, you are not His disciple. I am sure these two marks are such as every Christian has, and none but sincere Christians. O that the Lord would now persuade you to the close performance of this self-trial! that you may not tremble with horror of soul when the Judge of all the world shall try you; but be so able to prove your title to rest, that the prospect and approach of death and judgment may raise your spirits, and fill you with joy.

Announcements

The number of needs among our congregation, loved ones and friends remain great. Along with those that are already known, we also ask for the Lord's care for John Touw, along with wisdom to those who have his care. John will be having a biopsy Thursday to determine the type of cancer. This will direct the doctors which path of treatment to take. May the Lord grant comfort and strength to John and Barbara through these difficult days.

Teddy VanDeMoere's heart defect has closed on its own and his heart is now a normal size. We give thanks to the Lord for this and praise His name!
Psalm 136:4

Aren Koeber will be going to North Carolina on Wednesday to prepare for his deployment to the Middle East/Central Asia. Our prayer is Psalm 121, Psalter 345.
