"Immanuel." Matt. 1:23

Consider Jesus through this day as God with thee: God in thy nature: God become man for thy salvation and consolation. None but God was able to save, thy Jesus is God; it was necessary that the Saviour should be man, and Jesus man. He has the nature of His Father, here is His ability; He has thy nature also, here is His suitability. Jesus is God with thee, to hear thy prayer, check thy fears, redress thy grievances, sympathize with thee in thy sorrows, and be thy every-day friend. God is with us, observing our conduct, directing our ways, reproofing our follies, providing our supplies, and making all things work together for our good. Always remember, Jesus is with me, every sin is committed under His eye, against His love, and goes to His heart; think, when tempted to sin, that you hear Immanuel, the suffering, bleeding, dying, reigning Saviour say, "O do not that abominable thing which I hate." Walk before Him in love, peace, holiness, and zeal for His glory and praise. He is God in thee, as well as with thee.

Sweeter sounds than music knows,
Charm me in Immanuel's name;
All her hopes my spirit owes
To His birth, His cross, His shame.

O my Saviour, shield, and sun,
Lord and master, brother, friend,
Every precious name in one,
May I love Thee to the end."

James Smith. (The Pastor's Morning Visit.)
