

Prayer for Peace

"And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace."

————— JEREMIAH 29:7 —————

THE principle involved in this text would suggest to all of us who are the Lord's strangers and foreigners that we should be desirous to promote the peace and prosperity of the people among whom we dwell. Our nation and our city should be specially blessed by our constant intercession. An earnest prayer for your country and other countries is well becoming in the mouth of every believer.

Let us pray eagerly for the great blessing of peace, both at home and abroad. If strife causes bloodshed in our streets, or if foreign battle slays our brave soldiers, we would all bewail the calamity; let us therefore pray for peace and diligently promote those principles by which the classes at home and the races abroad may be bound together in bonds of amity.

We ourselves are promised quiet in connection with the peace of the nation, and this most desirable; for thus we can bring up our families in the fear of the Lord and also preach the Gospel without obstruction or hindrance. Today let us be much in prayer for our country, confessing national sins and asking for national pardon and blessing, for Jesus' sake.
