

2/21/16 A Life Worth Living John 17:1-5

This week's sermon was about the glory of God and prayer. Jesus spent some of his last hours praying to the Lord and he started off by talking about God receiving glory through his life.

God's glory is expressed in his radiant brightness. It is also the manifestation of his nature and being. The life of Jesus became a visible demonstration of God's glory to the world.

1. What are some ways your life can glorify God?
2. How can we explain to someone that Jesus' life gave glory to God? Consider his miracles, perfect life and heavenly origin. (see verse 4)
3. Jesus knew that bringing glory to God soon meant going to the cross. How does this painful experience in Jesus' life allow us to relate to God?
4. How is your prayer life going? How would you like to make your prayer life better?
5. Are you willing to give God the best hours of the day for prayer? How can we do this when we are at work or school all day?
6. How would you like others to pray for you this week?
7. I'd encourage you to take a moment right now and think of one unbeliever you have regular contact with. Pray the Lord will help you to share the gospel with them in the next 30 days (or sometime soon).
