Giacomo and Marjolein Coghi San Jose, Costa Rica

We are Giacomo and Marjolein Coghi. Together with our three children (Gioela, Luca and Tessa) we are serving with Youth With A Mission in San Jose, Costa Rica. We have served with YWAM since 1996, but in July of 2002 started a new missionary training and ministry center in the capital of San Jose. Our vision and calling is to raise up and equip relevant leaders who, transformed by the Gospel of Jesus Christ, will become those who will bring His light and truth into every sphere of society.

We reach out in many different ways as well as equip new leaders for the Great Commission through training schools. Our YWAM Ministry center is a University of the Nations campus (www.uofn.edu), which is part of YWAM (www.ywam.org). But we also reach out to the communities around us through the various ministries that we have going out from our center: Freedom Street Ministries (reaching out to those prostituted and enslaved in human trafficking), Metro Ministries (reaching out to children), Bibles for Costa Rica (a bible in every home in Costa Rica), Revolution (Skateboard ministry), Teams who come and serve, Homes of Hope (building a home in 2 days for a needy family) and several others.
